Free 2 jailers

By GARY SCHNEIDER
and WALTER STRANGE
Press-Record Staff Writers

Two Madison County sheriff's deputies, one from Granite City and one from Madison, were held hostage during an escape attempt yesterday evening at the Madison County Jail in Edwardsville.

Granite City Third Ward Alderman Roy "Chick" Poulos and Deputy Danny Sipes were held hostage by five men, four armed with homemade weapons, for nearly two hours, while Madison County State's Attorney Nicholas G. Byron, Madison County Sheriff John Maera and others negotiated for their release.

The ordeal ended in a promise that the prisoners would not be prosecuted for the escape attempt, in return for the safe release of Poulos and Sipes and the return to order in the jail.

At about 4:45 p.m. yesterday, Poulos, a jailer, returned five prisoners to their cells after a lineup and was preparing to close the cell doors when several jumped out of the cells. "They held a shiv (a broken coat hanger with a sharpened point) at my back, twisted my arm behind me and said 'Chick, we don't want to hurt you. We're going to leave,'" Poulos related. "They then took my keys," he added.

He noted they made him sit on a bench and Sipes came in after being told by a trustee that Poulos needed help.

"They grabbed Sipes, took his handcuffs and put them on him, and then sat him down on the bench," Poulos said.

$508,250 goal set by United Way

The Tri-Cities Area United Way board of directors yesterday set $508,250 as the goal of the drive opening Sept. 26, 1977, to help finance the operating costs of member agencies during 1978.

At the quarterly meeting, the board decided to establish a goal of seven per cent more than the $475,000 goal of a year ago.

The increase is expected to offset inflation. And it was asserted that "each dollar will be working harder" as a result of a newly-launched project intended to upgrade services and "fill gaps in existing community help programs."

President William F. Winter outlined activities of the Priorities and Planning Committee, including the scheduling of one-day workshops in June, July and August with different agency administrators and boards.

In addition, a workshop is planned involving governmental, educational, religious and private groups providing human services in the Quad-City area, Fox said.

On a recommendation by James Whitt and Melvin Wismeyer, the board accepted an offer for its interest in Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center property at 2049 State St.

St. Elizabeth Hospital will acquire the "Arch" building and administer expanded services to alcoholics housed there for varying periods of time.

The United Way will be paid an amount equal to the difference between the $28,550 original purchase price and the current debt of the center.

Executive Director Keith Rohrs reviewed campaign plans being developed by Campaign Chairman John Blasingame.

Rohrs also reported that a Manpower grant will permit hiring of a new UW staff member for nine to 12 months to chart services and potential federal grant programs and make such information available to agencies and citizens.

Amend coke ovens' order

The Illinois Pollution Control Board has amended its Sept. 15, 1976, order affecting pollution control progress at Granite City Steel coke ovens, it was announced Wednesday in Chicago.

The local steel plant operates 137 large coke ovens in three batteries.

Air pollution control devices will be installed on the "C" battery ovens now and will go on "A" and "B" after the latter two are rebuilt, under terms of the amended order. Rebuilding takes place periodically and involves major construction work.

Both Granite City Steel and the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency concurred in the proposal acted on favorably by the control board.

New studies dealt with the "remaining life of Batteries A and B upon which particular control devices were to be installed," the mid-May order relates.

The devices could not be installed before Battery B will be out of service.

Battery A will have only a few months of life after particular control devices could be installed.

Exhaustion of emissions from coke oven plants, which are a part of the steelmaking process, has plagued industry and government for a number of years due to the complexity of the task.

Part of the 1976 agreement with the state recognized hazards in control methods earlier suggested by the EPA.

Fireman saves infant

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

An off-duty Granite City firefighter used his training as an emergency medical technician to restore breathing to a 10-month-old infant Monday evening.

Robert E. Dawes, a fireman for 4½ years, was sitting in his car outside Reese Drugs in the Ballmore Village Shopping Center about 9:20 Monday when his wife, Patricia, came out of the store and said a child was in distress inside.

The infant is Shannon Joseph, son of Mrs. Debra Joseph, 2307 Fourteenth St. The child had stopped breathing.

Dawes said the infant was lying on a counter top. "The baby already had turned blue from lack of oxygen and I was convinced he was dying," Dawes commented.

The firefighter quickly cleared the air passage and began resuscitation, utilizing appropriate procedures to restore breathing to an infant of the baby's size and age.

Shannon responded to the mouth-to-mouth resuscitation technique and breathing had been restored when the ambulance squad arrived at the scene. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Mrs. Joseph said she had taken the baby into the drug store from the car, after "he suddenly started crying and jerking convulsively. She thought someone in there could help her."

Once inside, the child stopped breathing, she said.

"I am very grateful to Mr. Dawes for helping Shannon — very much so," Mrs. Joseph said. "I really didn't see what he did to Shannon. I just couldn't watch."

Shannon was released from the St. Louis hospital sometime after 1 a.m. Tuesday, but is to return for further blood tests later this week, Mrs. Joseph said.

She reported having taken the infant to the local hospital emergency room about 5:30 the same evening, where Shannon was treated for vomiting and an elevated temperature. He was released and his mother was given a prescription to have filled.

Upon arrival at the St. Elizabeth emergency room at 9:30 p.m. Monday, Shannon's fever was down and he was crying.

Neither the mother nor hospital staff was able to contact the infant's physician immediately, and Mrs. Joseph and the baby's grandfather decided to take Shannon to Children's Hospital in St. Louis, she said.

At Children's, the infant was given a spinal tap and blood test and was tentatively diagnosed as having experienced a second-rate fever with seizure (convulsion).

Shannon was released from the St. Louis hospital sometime after 1 a.m. Tuesday, but is to return for further blood tests later this week, Mrs. Joseph said.

"He is feeling just fine today," Mrs. Joseph said, confirmed by the sounds of a happy 10-month-old demanding his mother's attention in the background.

Dawes is assigned temporarily to the Granite City Main Fire Station from Station House 3 at Richmond Avenue and Johnson Road.

Fire Captain George Smolich, Dawes' shift commander at the main station, cited the fireman's quick reaction to the emergency by using the knowledge he acquired in the emergency medical technician (EMT) training course to avert a possible tragedy.

Similar incidents have occurred on more than one occasion when an off-duty fireman has aided a victim unable to breathe," Capt. Smolich said.

"It wouldn't hurt for everyone to take this type of training," the officer commented.

Dawes, 31, was among the first group of Granite City firefighters to complete the EMT course at St. Elizabeth Hospital in 1973.

He and his wife, the former Patricia Jones, are the parents of a six-year-old son, Rick.

Granite City Police Sgt. Albert Disk, who investigated many of the complaints, reported seeing elderly persons crying at 8 a.m. Wednesday as they related being awake and afraid from 1 a.m. until daylight, fearing the youths might return.

Police noted a telephone junction box located on the side of 2222 E. 24th St., which serves the telephones in many of the Anchorages, had the cover removed and all of the wires inside torn loose.

The telephones were believed disconnected about 1 a.m. Wednesday and the first vandals began a short time thereafter.

Five apartment buildings in the 2300 block of Winters Drive were the targets of vandals. One woman reported a tree limb torn off and a small metal fence damaged. A man in that block showed police the antenna had been torn off his car and branches had been torn from trees in his rear yard. Another woman said her car's antenna was torn off.

A band of youths, some riding motorcycles, are being sought in connection with 11 vandalism incidents reported Monday, one discovered Tuesday and 11 other incidents about 1:30 a.m. Wednesday, all in and near Anchorages Homes.

In Wednesday's incidents, numerous elderly residents of Anchorages Homes buildings reported a night of terror as their telephones were disconnected so they could not call the police, and a gang of youths went through the housing project breaking car windows and antennas, tearing limbs from trees, breaking fences and tearing up flower gardens and rose bushes.

Several of the elderly residents reported seeing or hearing the vandalism, but said they were helpless, since their telephones were not operating.

The rear view mirror was torn from another woman's car in that block and yet another reported the windshield and antenna broken and the gas cap torn from her auto. She reported hearing a very loud motorcycle near her home about 1 a.m. Wednesday.

In the 2400 block of Winters Drive, a woman reported both windshield wipers of her car were bent.

Five residents of the 2900 block of East 24th Street also reported similar vandalism with their telephones out of service. One woman reported a fence torn down and flower bed trampled, another reported her garden hose was disconnected, the outside water faucet was turned on and her clothes line was untied. She tried to call police but could not.

A man heard a thud and looked out to see a large dent in the hood of his car, and a woman in that block was awakened by a noise at 1:30 a.m. Wednesday and listened to her garden hose disconnected and the faucet turned on. She also tried to call police.

A man reported his picnic table was torn apart, his rose bushes were trampled and two poles to the clothesline in the back yard stolen. He also found police but could not.

Close vote on drinks at 19

Nineteen-year-olds' right to drink beer and wine in Illinois is shaky and perhaps tottering. An effort to return the minimum legal drinking age from 19 to 21 received a 29-23 favorable vote Tuesday in the Illinois Senate, one vote short of the 30 needed for passage. The proposal is eligible to be considered later in the current session, ending June 30.

Sen. Frank Ozinga (R-Evergreen Park) chief sponsor, told fellow legislators that the public wants such a change. He was opposed by Northern Illinois senators who said the net effect would be to drive Illinois business to Wisconsin.

In the House, two bills to raise the drinking age remain under committee study.

Sam the dog pays for his own food

"Believe this, because it's true," John Henry Williams, 618 Washington Ave., Venice, told the Press-Record yesterday. "My in-laws have a dog named Sam. He refuses to stay at his house, so he stays at my home."

"What's so important about Sam is that he pays for his own dog food. Sounds foolish, but it's true. I hope nothing happens to good old Sam."

"This dog has brought $6 in bills that he found somewhere in my four-year-old daughter. Sam will always be welcome at my home."

The source of the currency has not been determined, but Williams may consider following Sam to find out.

Board okays county jail drug study

At yesterday's monthly Madison County Board meeting, it was decided to have the Buildings Committee investigate the use and purchase of drugs consumed by county jail prisoners.

Board Chairman Nelson Hagauer directed the committee to work with the state's attorney's office and to report to the county grand jury if wrongdoing is found.

Daniel Parney of Granite City, an April mayor candidate and a County Board member, asked that a fact-finding committee be created.

The extent to which jail prisoners are given tranquilizers and sleeping pills has been brought into question. An Alton physician who decides on jail drug use has defended his decisions.

Hagauer has said he plays no role in the amount or type of drugs distributed.

He has categorized the issue as having political overtones but urged a full review by the committee.

Newly-elected Granite City aldermen who wish to attend a biennial meeting of the Illinois Municipal League at Springfield may collect an additional $45 to cover expenses of a "spouse" who may accompany the alderman to the meeting, according to a motion approved by the City Council Tuesday night.

The motion came from Alderman Charles R. Douglas, who was elected as an alderman of the First Ward in the April 5 city election and who will be attending his first municipal league meeting at the June 10-11 gathering at Springfield.

Douglas told Mayor Paul Schuler and council members that he had been "figuring an estimate" on the cost of attending the two-day meeting and that he believed a total of about $175 would "be about right" for an alderman and his "spouse."

Mrs. James Thompson to present history awards

Mrs. James R. Thompson, Illinois' First Lady, will honor 26 Illinois teen-age historians May 28 when she presents Student Historian of the Year awards at the Holiday Inn East at Springfield. Mrs. Thompson will also be the featured speaker on the program, scheduled to begin at 1:30 p.m. The awards are based on the excellence of articles written by the students and published during the school year in "Illinois History - A Magazine for Young People," sponsored by the Illinois State Historical Library and Society.

Mrs. Olive S. Foster, the library and society's supervisor of school services, will serve as mistress of ceremonies; the program is being held for the 29th year.

Among the students to be honored is Glenda Blair, 17, of Granite City, a senior at South High School.

In addition to Student Historian of the Year awards, four of the 26 and one of their teachers will receive special awards and cash prizes of $25. Two of these, one each to a junior and a senior high school student, will be for "Historical Research," and the other two will be for "Historical Writing." The teacher will be honored for outstanding service over a number of years to the State Historical Library and Society's school services program.

The afternoon's activities also will include judging of 260 entries from 83 schools in 66 communities competing in Illinois history-related art, handicraft, models, and dioramas.

Entries will be the blue-ribbon winners from four regional meetings held during April in East Alton, Bunker Hill, Bloomington, and Elizabeth. They will be on display in the hall, and the statewide winners will be announced at the conclusion of the program.

Students must approve welfare fund expenses

The Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees has adopted amendments to university regulation policies and procedures, stipulating that expenditures from the Student Welfare and Recreation Fund (SWRF) at each campus must be approved by student government before they can be authorized by the executive committee of the board.

SIU System officers explained that, as originally conceived, SWRF funds would only be used for major capital improvements, "and it was quite proper for all such expenditures to be considered by the full board. As the use of the fund have changed, there are less major items which can well be handled by the executive committee."

A statement from the System office to board members said, however, "It is appropriate that student government retain the option of channeling SWRF moneys to the full board since the dollars come from student pockets and may only be spent for student welfare and recreation."

It was further explained that any fixed improvements over $30,000 still have to go to the full board, and the executive committee members still may channel extraordinary items to the full board simply by withholding their approval.

The proposal that the executive committee should not act on a SWRF requisition unless student government first approved it was initiated by the SIUE Student Senate. The System Council directed that the matter be presented to the Board of Trustees for consideration.

SIUE GRANT TO AID WOMEN SCIENTISTS. Chemistry Professor Charlotte O. Lee, at work in her lab at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, recently received a $70,000 Women in Science Career Facilitation Project grant from the National Science Foundation. This grant will provide a 45-credit hour tuition-free program to upgrade the skills of women scientists who graduated from two to 15 years ago. The program is scheduled to begin this fall.

SIUE grant to aid women scientists

A $70,000 grant has been awarded to Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville by the National Science Foundation (NSF) for a special program to upgrade the skills of women in science.

This 45-credit hour tuition-free program, a Women in Science Career Facilitation Project, will be under the direction of Charlotte O. Lee, associate professor of chemistry. It is targeted to help those women who received their graduate or undergraduate degrees from two to 15 years ago and haven't worked since their graduation, are underemployed, or who need refresher courses in science.

Prof. Lee said more women chemists, food chemists and environmental scientists are needed in the St. Louis Metropolitan area and in Illinois. Twenty-four participants who hold a bachelor's or master's degree in either chemistry or biology will be selected for the project.

"The objective of the project," she said, "is to train more women for scientific careers. Forty-five credit hours of tuition-free courses will be available in chemistry, physical chemistry, food chemistry, environmental science, mathematics and technical writing.

"Seminars and counseling sessions will aid participants in the selection of career goals and will prepare them for employment or graduate school.

through carefully designed programs of self-analysis, resume writing and job interview techniques," she said.

The year-long Women in Science Career Facilitation Project is slated to begin in September. Classes will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. to enable women students with children to attend classes while their children are in school.

Prof. Lee said that according to a report by the National Science Foundation, there are about two million scientists and engineers in the U.S. Yet less than 10 percent are women.

She said the same report showed that almost half of the women scientists and engineers were not in the labor force in 1974, whereas only 12 percent of the male scientists and engineers were not employed at that time.

The report pointed out that there are also pronounced salary differences for males and females. In 1974, the median annual salary for men in science and engineering was $19,400, but women made an average of $15,700. It was also shown that a greater proportion of men were in managerial jobs which generally pay higher salaries.

"Data presented in the Needs Analysis Statement of the proposal (for the NSF grant) shows that the estimated national employment opportunities for women chemists and biologists will increase over the next 10 years at all degree levels," Prof. Lee said.

CB'ers plan safety program for Memorial Day weekend

Thousands of CB radio operators, working through the International CB Radio Operators Association (ICBRA), are expected to provide valuable road safety information over the forthcoming Memorial Day Weekend, according to Howard D. Wolfe, executive director of CBA.

The CBA Memorial Day "Rest Stop" program is a national effort to set up "coffee and soft drink" roadside stopping areas for Memorial Day travelers. The concept has been endorsed by the governors of more than 45 states to date and additional endorsements are still coming in, Wolfe said. CBA will establish volunteer-manned "rest stops" at major interstate junctions and along interstate highways for the 75-hour period starting at 6 p.m. on Friday, May 27. The "rest stop" locations will be set up with the latest 40 channel radios, provided on loan by cooperating manufacturers of CB radio equipment through local equipment dealers, and distributors.

Miss Rita Ahlers is nurse graduate

Miss Rita Ahlers was among 57 nursing students at Deaconess Hospital School of Nursing, St. Louis, who received diplomas at commencement exercises during the weekend. The graduation took place at Graham Chapel on the Washington University campus. Miss Ahlers is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard D. Ahlers, 2601 East 26th St.

MAN INJURED AT WORK
Jack Mitchell, 26, of 4215 Breckenridge Lane, was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital by city ambulance last week. It was reported that a conveyor chute fell on his back while working at the A. O. Smith Corp. automotive frame plant. He was transferred to Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis.

released by the Electronic Industries Association recently, the American public's appetite for CB radio has not diminished in the past year. "The EIA forecasts between 2.1 and 2.2 million new CB licenses in the first quarter of 1977 and a total sales volume of 10-12 million new 40 channel CB radios during all of 1977," Wolfe reported. A state breakdown shows that some states (Texas, California, others) now have one car in eight equipped with CB radio and the number of mobile units installed and operating is expanded nationwide at the rate of 27-30,000 per day.

"There is little question that by 1980 every other American car (one in two) will have a CB radio installed," Wolfe added. "The impact of CB on the American life is becoming more evident everyday. It is almost impossible to pick up a newspaper in a major metropolitan area on any given day and not find at least one story relating how CB radio has saved a life, or assisted in locating a lost person, or made it possible for a law breaker to be quickly apprehended."

CB radio operators interested in participating in the CBA nationwide "Memorial Day 'Rest Stop' program may contact CBA at Post Office Box 1020, Koonsee, Va. 24066.

Burn victims still are hospitalized

Mrs. Connie Mitchell, 33, of 2540 Parkview Apts., and Bruce Carr, 19, of Edwardsville, still are hospitalized with burns received earlier this month when a large pressure cooker malfunctioned in the kitchen at Kentucky Fried Chicken, 1596 Johnson Road, where both are employed.

Mrs. Mitchell is at Granite City's St. Elizabeth Hospital where she has undergone several operations and reported in satisfactory condition, and Carr is at Belleville's St. Elizabeth Hospital in good condition.

The restaurant's general manager, Leonard Yellon, explained that a gasket apparently slipped from under a lid covering the cooker, which holds about 180 pieces of chicken, spraying streams of hot grease on the two workers.

"I've been in this business 15 years," said Yellon, "and this was the first time I had ever seen this type of accident."

The pact accepted the concept of devices invented during the mid-1970s by heads of the Granite City Steel environmental staff.

Installation will be expedited on the C battery and then will be geared to the rebuilding of A and B.

Granite City Steel Vice-President Donald Cairns testified that two of the batteries have been deteriorating at such a rate that it will be more feasible to rebuild them.

bench next to me. Then they decided to put Sipes in the lower bullpen with the other prisoners and they took his handcuffs off, put them on me and locked Sipes up.

"They then took me upstairs and decided to lock me in a cell with the handcuffs on. They kept saying, 'We're not going to hurt you.' After I calmed down, I realized they were not going to do anything to me, since I was locked up," Poulos related.

One armed man stayed outside of Poulos' cell the entire time.

"About two hours later, an inmate came in, said it was all over and someone came in and opened the cell and let me out. We all went down together and out the front door," he added.

He described the homemade weapons as two "shivs" and two clubs. One also took a "sap," a heavy hand-held bag-type bludgeon, from Sipes and held it during the negotiations.

The shivs were made of strengthened coat hangers broken in half with the ends sharpened on the concrete floor or on a rock. They were curved at the handle ends and had rags wrapped around for handles.

He said the clubs were made of mop handles or some kind of sticks and had string or rope attached to them.

Poulos did not see the negotiations.

"I was just going to work. It was about 4:30 p.m. and I started work at 5 p.m. I was in the radio room when a trucky came running to the cage area and said Chick needs help in back," Depina Sipes related.

"Mike Schuler, a jailer, went to the door going into the jail and then called back to get deputies. I took off my gun in the booking area and ran back there."

"Four prisoners met me at a door, put a homemade shiv, made of a coat hanger, in my back, took my handcuffs and cuffed my hands behind my back."

"They made me lie face down on the floor. I talked them into letting me get up and they sat me on a bench next to Chick, still handcuffed."

"After a little while they took the handcuffs off me and put me in the bullpen with 11 other prisoners and handcuffed Chick."

"They took Chick upstairs into the felony area. After about an hour and a half I talked one of the inmates, who seemed to be ramrodding the thing, into letting me go free."

"I explained my wife was pregnant and when this hit television it would upset her and could cause complications."

"The inmate apparently felt some compassion and let me go. The inmates in the bullpen were very cooperative with me and were, in fact, trying to figure a way to get me out of there."

Sipes, 24, lives in Madison and has been with the sheriff's department two and one-half years. He and his wife have one child. He was a member of Police Explorer Post 104 of Madison for four years and is a member of the adult post committee.

Resigns School Board post

Mrs. Jacqueline Leatherman resigned last night as a member of the Venice Board of Education, effective immediately, due to moving from the school district.

Her resignation was accepted by the board, which failed to fill the vacancy by appointment at Wednesday's meeting.

Four or five names were proposed by board members during executive session to fill the post until next April's school district election.

Further consideration and discussion will be given to these proposed last night and a decision will be made shortly, the Rev. Richard Bailey, board president, advised.

If the Venice board is unable to agree on an appointee within 30 days from accepting the resignation, Harry E. Briggs, superintendent of Madison County Education Service Region, is permitted by statute to call a special election to fill the vacancy.

An appointee would serve until the April 1978 election when the individual would be required to seek election as a candidate for a one-year term.

Mrs. Leatherman's term as a board member would have extended until April 1979. Appointed members, however, are allowed to serve only until the next regular school district election.

After serving on the Venice School Board by appointment, Mrs. Leatherman was elected

WILKINS IS ELECTED

Dr. George T. Wilkins Sr. of Granite City, professor emeritus, Southern Illinois University, was elected a director of the Vernon Financial Corp. and a director of the Vernon Financial and Casualty Co. at the annual meeting of the company, held at the Ramada Inn, in Indianapolis, Ind., last week.

There would not add or detract from the amount of time they probably will serve.

"Therefore, prosecuting them here on attempted jailbreak would probably be a waste of time. Sheriff Maeras does not feel it will be a message to all the prisoners that all they have to do is take a jailer hostage and we will get immunity."

"We feel our efforts were successful. We stopped an escape attempt, which is what we tried to do. We also got the hostages released unharmed. Baetz told the Press-Record."

"We feel there were some errors by sheriff's department personnel leading up to this and the sheriff already is studying ways to strengthen the security at the jail. The last time this happened was back in 1968 and we do not expect it to happen again in the future," Baetz concluded.

One jailer told the Press-Record, "This should point out the need for a new jail. If we had a new jail with proper surveillance equipment, this would not have happened."

The Madison County Board is completing plans for constructing a new facility to replace the 100-year-old jail which has been plagued by poor facilities and overcrowding.

Baetz congratulated the Edwardsville Police Department for an excellent job of crowd control and keeping traffic moving during the two and one-half hour incident. He also thanked the Illinois state police from District 11 for aiding in securing the outside of the jail.

Baetz said Damron and McDonald are listed as escapees from the Greencastle Correctional Institution in Greencastle, Ind., where they are to be serving terms for burglary. They may face prosecution for alleged escape in Indiana.

Monopoly fear voiced on bank bills in state

Illinois Bankers Association Executive Vice President Robert C. Schrimple this week warned Illinois bankers that "monopoly banking will come back" unless the state's banking and holding company bills pass the Illinois legislature.

"Under these two bills, one Chicago bank could legally open at least 500 offices in the six-county Chicago metropolitan area in the next few years. Under the branching bill alone, a major loop bank could open over 50 banking offices in Cook and DuPage Counties in 1978," Schrimple asserted.

"The combination of these two bills is a power play by some of the major Chicago banks to bring monopoly banking to Illinois."

"Presently in Illinois, 40 percent of the banks (535) control 90 percent of the deposits. In the branch banking states of New York and California, one per cent of the banks control nearly 90 percent of the deposits."

James E. Centers, 14 Hanson Drive, and Fred French, 3941 Park Lane, both aged 17, remain in custody in the roof of the Madison County jail after failing to post $7,500 bail on charges of theft by Pontoon Beach authorities.

The two were arrested during the weekend at Bruene Avenue and Lake Street while allegedly attempting to start a motorcycle belonging to Terry Lynn Soliden, 407 Bruene St., which had been stolen earlier.

HURT IN ACCIDENT
John Hamm, 23, of 1432 Sixth St., Apt. 4, Madison, was injured when his auto was involved in an accident and Hamm bumped his head on the roof of the car Monday. He went to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated for a bump to his head, pain to his neck, and bruises to his left knee and the fingers of his left hand. X-rays were taken and he was released.

The suspect, who police said has a previous criminal record, was taken into custody and is being held in the Granite City jail awaiting court appearance on a charge of attempted burglary.

Suspect held in burglary
Pontoon Beach police at 9:28 p.m. Wednesday answered a burglary in progress call at Mann's Phillips 66 Station, 4086 Pontoon Road, and took a man into custody.

Arriving at the scene, police observed a man inside the bay area.

They ordered the suspect outside.

He complied and told police he noticed the broken door window and thought there may be someone inside burglarizing the place and that was why he was inside.

Reception Sunday at St. Joseph

A special mass and reception will be held at St. Joseph Roman Catholic Church Sunday, May 22, in honor of Sister Mary Samuella P.P., principal of the school, and Sister Mary Bernard O.P., who taught the seventh and eighth grades this year.

Sister Samuella leaves St. Joseph School after six years of service as principal to assume the duties of the first and second grade teacher at St. Maurice School in Morrisville, Ill.

Sister Bernard has been assigned to Sacred Heart School, Granite City. Both are members of the Dominican Sisters, Springfield, Ill.

All students and their families, parishioners and friends are invited to attend the mass at 11 a.m. and the reception to follow immediately after the service in the church hall.

Ralph Corbey found dead

Ralph Corbey, 80, of 2400 Sheridan Ave., was found dead in his home at 5:25 p.m. Wednesday with a bullet wound in his upper chest. A .22 caliber automatic pistol was found beside him with one live bullet in it. An expended shell casing was found by his feet.

Police said they noted no signs of foul play and nothing appeared disturbed in the home, it was reported.

It had been picked up Wednesday's mail and his kitchen light was on all night, Mrs. Corbey was told.

She and her husband, Ronald Butkovich, went to Mr. Corbey's home to investigate and found him lying on his back on the back porch. Police then were called. There will be an inquest.

Mr. Corbey was born in Terre Haute, Ind., and had resided here 67 years. He retired from Nesco Barrel after 45 years of service.

He was a member of the VFW Post 1300 and also belonged to the Veterans of World War I. His wife, Mrs. Leona Corbey, died April 29, 1976.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Vernon (Ruth) Morris of Granite City, and Mrs. Harry (Jean) Edwards of St. Genevieve, Mo.; five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Major GC committee posts go to Schuler supporters

Major committee chairmanships on the Granite City Council were assigned by Mayor Paul Schuler Tuesday night to those aldermen aligned politically with the mayor — most of whom were restored as chairmen of committees they served last year.

The chairmanships were announced by Mayor Schuler at the opening of the City Council session from among committee appointments agreed upon by the aldermen in a special meeting a week ago.

Under a court ruling resulting from legal proceedings six years ago to determine the authority of the mayor in naming committees, the committees now are appointed by the aldermen and the chairman of each committee is appointed by the mayor.

The Granite City Council has 16 permanent operating committees. By ordinance, the committees have three members each.

In announcing his appointments Tuesday night, Mayor Schuler named five new aldermen elected in the April 5 city election to the chairmanship of one committee each.

The chairmanships of ten other committees went to aldermen who supported the mayor in his bid for re-election in April. The 16th chairman's post went to Warren Decatur, a "holdover" alderman who opposed Schuler in the election.

Alderman Gerald Parmley of the Sixth Ward was named chairman of the Finance Committee, one of the council's top committees that handle budget preparations and oversees other financial operations of city departments.

Parmley replaced Ronald Coleman, former Seventh Ward alderman who did not run for re-election and who was defeated in a bid for election as city treasurer.

Parmley has served as chairman of the Finance Committee in previous years, serving with him on that committee are Fred Schuman and Paul Ray Bowler, both newly-elected aldermen.

Alderman Roy Poulos of the Third Ward was reappointed chairman of the Ordinance Committee, a post he held during the past year. His committee members include Aldermen Earl Baker, a council member since 1973, and Charles R. Douglas, a newly-elected alderman.

Also reappointed as a committee chairman was Alderman Clyde Boyd of Ward Three who again will head the Street and Alley Committee. Serving with him are Alderman Emerald Daves of the Seventh Ward, and Alderman Lloyd Bailey who was elected in the April balloting.

Alderman Everett Morlen, First Ward, was reappointed chairman of the Police Committee, a post he has filled for the past two years. His committee members are Parmley and Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward who has served on the council 22 years.

Vandalism

his phone dead when he tried to call for aid.

In addition to those who reported vandals and theft Wednesday morning, several residents of the 2200, 2300 and 2400 blocks of Winters Drive told officers of motorcycles driving through their back yards almost nightly, damaging plants, trees and gardens and frightening the elderly residents.

Wednesday morning's events came just as the neighborhood was quieting from a night of vandalism Sunday night and early Monday. In that series of incidents, nine autos were damaged and the front entrance lights were smashed at Roderick's Restaurant, East 24th Street and Nameoki Road.

Reports came from the 2700, 2800 and 2900 blocks of East 24th Street, the 2300 and 3000 blocks of Pershing Boulevard, the 2000 block of Edwards St., and the 2400 block of Winters Drive.

One woman in the 2800 block of East 24th St. told police she saw the two youths by her auto, one holding a crowbar, and yelled to them, asking what they were doing.

One responded they were looking for a friend and they walked away, she related. Moments later, she heard a crash and called police. More crashes were heard and when she looked out, she saw two boys run from the scene, just as a police car approached.

Officers searched the Alexander Avenue and Edna Street area toward which the boys fled, but were unable to find them.

Mrs. Ahvres checked her auto and found the outside rear-view mirror had been knocked off.

Four such reports were made by residents of East 24th Street, including Roderick's Restaurant. One man discovered the left window and outside mirror of his car were broken, and a woman found her windshield, right front window, antenna and door lock broken.

Two reports were received from Pershing Boulevard where the right side car window and left rear tail light were broken on the auto of a man in the 2900 block, and the windshield was smashed in the car of a man in the 3000 block.

In the 2400 block of Winters Drive, a woman noted the outside mirror of her car was broken off, and another in that block discovered a broken windshield and mirror broken.

A woman on Edwards Street also found her car's windshield broken and an elderly Anchorage Homes woman noted the tail light and antenna of her auto were broken.

Early reports Monday of broken windows in the Anchorage Homes buildings proved in error.

On Tuesday morning, a resident of the 3000 block of Pershing Boulevard, found three of his vehicles had been damaged.

The antenna, hood ornament and mirror were broken from one car, the antenna was broken on another car and the windshield of his pickup truck was broken, all at his home.

Police also were told Wednesday morning that 12 tires on five adjacent autos in the parking lot near the 1900 block of Kirkpatrick Homes were punctured or cut. It is not known if the vandals at Kirkpatrick are related to the Anchorage Homes incidents.

Three slashes were on the cars of Connie Robbins, 3602 Kirkpatrick Homes, two tires; Richard Williams, 4004 Kirkpatrick Homes, four tires; Gary Frost, 317 Sunny Shores Mobile Home Park, Mitchell, two tires; Mary Hoover, 4004 Kirkpatrick Homes, two tires; and Richard Dupage, Caseyville, two tires.

from people in my ward."

His motion provided that the city authorize expenses of $178 for an alderman attending the statewide meeting accompanied by a spouse, while $45 to be subtracted from that amount for aldermen attending without a spouse.

Alderman Sam Whitmer objected to the proposal, noting that during his 22 years of council member "I've never seen the time when we have paid expenses for our wives going along to conventions. I say let them pay themselves for their wives' expenses."

The Municipal League meeting, which is to be held at Holiday Inn East at Springfield, is a session held every two years by the state municipal organization to acquaint newly-elected city officials with fundamentals of city government, operating procedures and basic laws that control municipal operations.

City Clerk Robb Stevens said that while the meeting primarily is for new city officials, other city officials who have been serving also may attend.

On a roll call vote, Whitmer was joined by Earl Baker, an alderman of the Sixth Ward, and two other newly-elected council members, Fred Schuman Jr. and Paul Ray Bowler, in opposing the motion.

"Voting 'yes' were Aldermen Douglas, Mrs. Margaret Norn, Lloyd Bailey, Warren Decatur, Everett Morlen, Roy Poulos, Emerald Daves and Glen Sprankle. Alderman Gerald Parmley and Clyde Boyd were absent."

After the meeting, a city official remarked privately that he was surprised at the motion by Douglas because he was certain Douglas was unmarried.

Douglas, however, told the Press-Record: "Yes, I was married the latter part of April. My wife and I intended to keep it a secret until we could get a house and get located. But the news has gotten out."

Arrests mount in auto tag drive

While 161 drivers who received tickets for not having Granite City vehicle tax stickers on their cars Monday and Tuesday will have to pay fines of $15 each, one woman stopped at a routine roadblock may have to pay much more.

Mrs. Ethel I. Paul, 44, of 2634 Benton St., has already posted $35 cash and her driver's license as bond on charges of not having a city tax sticker on her car, refusing to obey a police officer and resisting arrest. She faces court action on the charges.

Patrolman J. W. Apperson said he was on a routine roadblock at 22nd Street and the railroad tracks at 6:40 p.m. Tuesday checking all passing cars for city stickers when he stopped one car and asked the woman driver if she had a sticker.

She said she did not and Apperson asked her if she lived in Granite City and she said she did. Apperson then asked her to drive her car to the side of the road for a ticket. She replied, "No, I'm going home," Apperson alleged.

Apperson said he told her she was under arrest for not having a city sticker and she allegedly repeated she was going home and drove away.

Apperson chased her auto in a squad car using red lights and a siren, but alleged she refused to stop. He said he finally passed her car and forced it off the road at 22nd and Adams streets, then reached in the car and removed the car keys.

He requested aid from other police units and alleged she refused to show her driver's license or to get out of the car. Force had to be used to remove her from the auto, it was reported. Mrs. Paul was charged with being the driver of the auto and the car was towed to a city holding area.

A total of 28 tickets were issued to motorists crossing the railroad tracks at 22nd Street either at Adams Street or Missouri Avenue. The intersection of 21st and State streets also drew revenue for the city as 18 motorists were stopped there.

By far the most successful roadblocks Tuesday and Wednesday were those at St. Clair and Jill Avenues where 23 motorists were "ticketed" Tuesday and 23 more Wednesday.

Sixteen others fell prey to the police at 25th Street, of the railroad tracks; seven were caught at 27th and Benton streets, and seven were ticketed at St. Clair and Dale avenues.

Other roadblocks netted motorists on Edwardsville Road, Narnook Road and Jill Avenue.

Officers noted that only one city sticker violation ticket was issued on Monday, the first day of the threatened crackdown. It was explained that the final day for purchasing tax stickers, May 15, fell on a Sunday. So Monday was given as a day of grace for most motorists. The only tax sticker ticket issued Monday accompanied other traffic tickets issued to one woman.

Police noted the crackdown is continuing and Granite City residents who have not yet purchased vehicle tax stickers for their vehicles should do so immediately at the city clerk's office in city hall. The fee is now $3.50 for autos and is higher for trucks, depending on their class.

Another 31 drivers were arrested, most on Washington Avenue at 27th and 30th streets.

Boy falls off moving auto

Mark Donaldson, 15, of 1603 Maple St., suffered a head injury when he fell from the right front fender of a moving car at 9:10 p.m. Tuesday.

Police were told Donaldson was riding on the right front fender of an auto driven by Beverly Bonds, 17, of 4009 Redwood Lane, Mitchell, when the driver turned left at St. Louis Avenue and Maple Street and Donaldson fell off the car and struck his head on the pavement.

He was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where a possible internal head injury was diagnosed and he was admitted for observation.

She also reported tickets now are available for the traditional school picnic, scheduled Saturday, May 28 at the Chain of Rocks park, for Sacred Heart pupils and their families.

Special recognition was given children winning certificates in the Presidential Physical Fitness program.

Gold certificates, decals and patches were awarded to Annette York, Denise McKee, Laura Milankovic and Susan Squires.

Sister Karla expressed appreciation to PTO members and faculty for cooperation during her six-year tenure as principal. She also demonstrated a slide projector, secured through the efforts of students saving soup labels.

Father Hill reported plans are under way for a family-style chicken dinner on Sunday, June 12. Parents and young adults are being asked to volunteer their assistance in the project.

The priest offered prayer to conclude the meeting, and a dessert course was served by mothers from Room One.

Spalding to challenge point leaders in race

Quad-City area stock car drivers are expected to continue challenging out-of-town drivers for top positions in Gateway Auto Racing Association point standings Saturday evening when late model and sportsman division competition starts at seven o'clock at Tri-City Speedway.

With Spalding of Pontoon Beach holds third spot in late model division point standings with 570 markers, trailing the leader Russ Wallace of Arnold, Mo., who has 680, and second place C. C. Corbin of East Alton with 600.

Wallace, defending track titlist, has yet to win a feature race this season, but consistent placing in good finishing positions in events has boosted him into the point lead.

Spalding has claimed the checkered flag in one main event, and this past weekend he beat Corbin across the finish line in a race involving the six drivers with the highest point averages.

Spalding's hopes were dashed, however, when a gear in the car's transmission locked while he was running in 10th position in the feature race won by Jerry Sifford of Imperial, Mo.

In the sportsman division, Granite City's Dean Arner, track champion of that division two years ago, leads the standings with 790 points, although he has yet to win a main event.

Two-time feature race winner Gary Barker of Granite City is in fifth position with 485 points. Granite City's Jerry Zehnle is second with 600 points, Bill Ried of St. Charles, Mo., third with 595, and St. Louisian Gary Wallace fourth with 550.

Granite Cityan Keith Whelan, a senior at GCHS North, has qualified for a berth with the U.S. World University Wrestling Team which will compete in August during world games in Bulgaria.

Whelan, a standout high school maulman and Illinois state qualifier three consecutive years, took top honors during the weekend in 134-pound Greco-Roman wrestling competition at Northwestern University at Evanston to earn a spot in the world-wide meet.

Noting that only junior college or university students were eligible to participate, Steeler mentor Walt Whitaker said athletes who have already been accepted by a college were also allowed to take part.

Whelan has received an athletic scholarship to attend this fall at Florissant Valley Community College, St. Louis.

SUCCESSFUL STEAL is executed by Cougar Mike Brown in SIUE's weekend contest with Indiana Central which resulted in a 4-4 deadlock when the contest was called due to darkness after nine innings. Brown, who has batted in 32 runs during the season with his home run prowess, is expected to give his team a boost this weekend in the NCAA Division II District-Four tournament hosted by the Cougars.

SIUE district tourney opens today

Action in the National Collegiate Athletic Association's Division II District Four baseball tournament starts today at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville's Cougar Field with two games scheduled. The district was formerly the Great Lakes Regional.

At noon today, Wright State University of Dayton, Ohio, was to battle it out with its Buckeye State neighbor, Youngstown State. A second contest pitting the host SIUE Cougars of Coach Roy E. Lee with Northern Kentucky University was scheduled for 3 p.m.

It will be the eighth straight NCAA post-season district double-elimination tourney for SIUE and the second for Wright State. In fact, SIUE had to defeat Wright State two consecutive games last year in order to advance to the national championship Little College World Series at Springfield.

Today's two losers will square off at noon tomorrow and the pair of first-round winners will do battle tomorrow, at 3 p.m. Additional games scheduled for Saturday, with Sunday being set aside as the meet's "rain day," if needed.

The Kentucky state legislature recently changed the Bluegrass state entry's name from Northern Kentucky State College to Northern Kentucky University. It is located at Highland Heights, Ky., right across the Ohio River from Cincinnati. The Norsemens, coached by Bill Aker, are 27-4-1 for the season. The Cougars are 22-6-1. The Youngstown U. Penguins are 20-4, while the Wright State Raiders are 24-19. However, Wright State is reported to have played 75 per cent division I NCAA season. SIUE, in turn, had a 5-5 record against division I teams.

Coach Lee's Cougars closed out their regular season last Saturday in a lukewarm manner, dropping the first game of a twirlin', 3-2 to a good

Indiana Central team, and being tied, 4-4, by the Indiana nine in a nine-inning called game because of darkness.

Regular season batting averages show catcher Greg McBride, junior from Edwardsville, in the number one spot with a hefty .383. Next, is his main adversary for the catching job, Highland's Randy Manley, who is hitting at a .326 clip.

Taking over the reins batted in leadership was senior shortstop, Dave Schaeke of Edwardsville with a total of 32. It marks the first time in the 1977 campaign that Schaeke has been ahead of senior right fielder, Mike Brown, in the RBI race. Brown, who has been in a slump, is second with 32 RBIs. Schaeke is hitting .286 and Brown .282. Cougar fans feel strongly that both Schaeke and Brown will regain their usually robust hitting for the pre-season tourneys.

Other regulars hitting above .300 are: Don Eberlin (.301) of Alton; James Noffke of Stewardson, Ill. (.310); Bill Stoltz of Edwardsville (.308); Kent Wells of Flora, Ill. (.317); Mike Kelley of Mt. Pulaski, Ill. (.333); and Mike Lisy of Carlinville, Ill. (.311).

SIUE's five top pitchers are, on the basis of their earned run averages (ERA), the following: Kent Hendrickson's 2.16 (2-0); Jerry Dem's 2.66 (6-4); Steve Ashby's 2.73 (3-4); Stan Osturb's 3.22 (5-3); and Sam Pastrovich's 3.23 (5-3). The Cougars' combined ERA of 3.81 is impressively better than their opponents' 5.66.

Austin, Cardin sign with BAC soccer program

Mike Moore, Belleville Area College Soccer Coach, announces that Mike Austin of Granite City and Dean Anthony Cardin of Pontoon Beach have signed letters of intent to play soccer at Belleville Area College.

Austin, a son of Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Austin, 2323 Delta St., is a 1977 graduate of Granite City High School South, where he was coached by Gene Baker. During high school, Austin played on the Warville 1976 state champion soccer team. Austin will play wherever he is needed with the BAC Dutchmen, according to Coach Moore.

Cardin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cardin, 3904 Gaslight Walk, Pontoon Beach, is a 1977 graduate of Granite City High School North where he was coached by Robert Kehoe. Named the Steelers' most valuable player in 1976 and a team tri-captain, Cardin will play wing fullback for BAC.

South mentor Gene Baker said, "We will miss their efforts. Both were great contributors to our gaining the state title last season."

Trojans among district track title contenders

Coch Charles Steptoe's Trojan track and field team will clash Saturday with 21 other teams in competition at Red Bud for the 1977 Illinois High School Association Class A district title, starting at 10 a.m. The state finals for schools of 750 enrollment or less will be held Friday and Saturday, May 27-28, at Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, Ill.

Individuals and relay squads, placing first or second in each event at the district will advance to the state meet.

In addition, individuals and relay units equaling or surpassing preset qualifying marks also will advance, providing they place third, fourth or fifth.

Set to challenge the Madison High School team are Anna-Jonesboro, Aviston Central, Brees, Mater Dei, Cairo, Chester, Columbia, DuSable, Freeburg, St. Paul of Highland, Marissa, Mount City, Nashville, New Athens, Oakville, Pinckneyville, Red Bud, Trenton, Watseka, Waterloo High, Sparta and defending district champion Lebanon.

Steptoe reports that the meet "probably has about the strongest entries in the state."

He said that Cairo has fast sprinters and able jumpers, and that Freeburg Coach Richard Bright has built a squad of good sprinters and field event contenders.

Bright is a Madison native and graduated from Madison High.

"Mount City is a sprint-oriented team that has been nipping at our heels in district competition for the past three years," said Steptoe.

"Sparta," the mentor noted, "has a 440-yard relay squad equal in performance to the state's best."

"And Lebanon promises to be the team to beat again this year, although its star 440 sprinter, Richard Norman, will not compete."

Norman will be playing in an

all-star basketball contest

Coch Steptoe believes that Red Bud and Triad both have chances of taking top honors in two-mile relay, high jump and the 100 and 200 dashes, since athletes of the two schools have already matched or topped this season's state qualifying marks.

Madison's 440-yard relay, comprised mainly of fast-improving freshmen and sophomore athletes.

Madison's 440-yard relay squad, of James Heard, Marcus White, Earnest Davenport and either Duane Bochman or Sylvester Collins has posted the best time (45.5 seconds) during the season of any school entered in the meet.

The state qualifying mark is 44 seconds. Davenport, a sophomore, in addition to anchoring Trojan relay squads, is believed by Steptoe to "have an opportunity of going to state in the 440 dash."

The fleet Trojan has gone the 440 in 51.3 seconds, three-tenths of a second short of the state time.

On Tuesday, during a 12-school invitational meet at Madison's 440 relay to first place and helped set a new meet record of 45.7 seconds in the time.

White is also slated for extra duty and is predicted by Steptoe as possibly advancing in both the 100 and 200 dashes.

He has posted a time of 10.1 seconds consistently during the season in the 100 (one-tenth second short of the qualifying time), and has zipped the 200 in 23 seconds (six-tenths of a second short of the qualifying time).

"However you analyze the meet," said Steptoe, "every athlete will need to try to double and redouble his efforts to come out on top."

State meet beckons as athletes enter district

The track and field Flyers of East St. Louis will enter the High School Association Class A district meet at Red Bud, Ill., tomorrow at Highland, but they must contend with representatives of 19 other schools, including GCHS North and GCHS South.

Competing at 4 p.m. Friday on Highland High School's all-weather (asphalt) field, in addition to the Flyers and hosts, will be Alton, Belleville, Alton, Belleville East and West, Bethalto, Cahokia, Collinsville, Lincoln of East St. Louis, Edwardsville, North and South, Greenville, Hillsboro, Jerseyville, Mascoutah, O'Fallon, Rosam, and Wood River.

With individuals and relay squads placing first or second in each event advancing into the state finals May 27-28 at Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, Ill. through fifth place, athletes also can advance to state competition by equaling or surpassing state qualifying marks.

As established by the IHSAA, pre-determined qualifying marks are: 100-yard dash (10 seconds), 200 dash (22.6), 400 dash (51 seconds), 800 run (1:50), mile run (4:30), two-mile run (9:30), 1200-yard high hurdles (15 seconds), 300 low hurdles (38.5), high jump (6-2), long jump (21-4), triple jump (45-1), pole vault (13-6), shot put (32 feet), discus (130 feet), 440 relay (14 seconds), mile relay (3:27.5) and two-mile relay (8:05).

Seven Warrior athletes were among those counted on by Coach Don Miller to head GCHS South efforts, but freshman two-mile runner Dave Houston has suffered a leg injury.

Two Warriors have topped state qualifying marks in events, and others have posted times or distances close to the required marks.

Scott Cahney has covered the 1200-yard hurdles in 14.9 seconds, Erwin has thrown the discus 154-1, Jim Dumont has finished the mile run in 4:35 and Jay Huebner has reached 83-11 in shot put competition.

Cliff Barker has attained a height of 13-4 in pole vaulting and Bert Houston has cleared the high jump bar at six feet.

Distance runner Mike Baker, a junior, is predicted by Steptoe Coach Harry Lang to qualify for the Charleston finals along with other North stars.

Baker's cross-country state qualifier last fall, has run the mile event in 4:30.9 and the two-mile event in 9:29.8.

Lang notes that Barker and his constant competitor, Randy Adler of Alton, are both listed among the top 20 statewide for their performances in the two-mile run.

David Peters will traverse the 120 high hurdles and currently has a best time of 15.1 seconds.

Jim Shemwell will attempt to match the state distance in the shot put and has attained 50 feet, nine inches.

Hoping to gain a berth in the state meet also are North's mile and two-mile relay squads, each comprised of Glenn Edwards, Don Lucy, Dave Ebrecht and Greg Stout. The four have gone the mile in 3:38.5 and the two-mile in 8:29.

SIUE women in Ohio tourney

Three members of the women's tennis team from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville are at Ohio State University today to participate in the Regional Tennis Championships.

The Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (IAAW) offered post-season berths to SIUE's top-seeded singles player, Patty Phillips, and the Cougars' top-seeded doubles team of Pat Ziegenfuss and Debbie Hirsch.

Ziegenfuss and Hirsch earned the right to compete in post-season play last fall when they made an impressive semi-final showing at the IAAW State Tennis Tournament.

But Phillips, who lost in quarter-final action last year to SIU-Carbondale's top seed, Sue Briggs, was not informed of her eligibility for Regionals until last week.

As Coach Kent DeMars explained, "We knew that there would be a couple of open berths for singles players, so we sent in Patty's name. They notified us last week that Patty would be invited."

Assistant coach Beth Ennis will take the team to Ohio, while DeMars is in California with his men's netters.

"I think that the women will do very well at the regionals. We have just come off a super season, winning our last tournament at Western Illinois University. At Western, Patty was the top-seeded singles player and she finished in first place. Ziegenfuss and Hirsch also did very well. We are up for this trip to Ohio State," Coach DeMars said.

The women departed from SIUE Tuesday in the hopes of getting a day of rest and a change of practice before the action begins today and continues through Saturday.

Mercer at Mitchell, Highland at Thomas

A fourth weekend of doubleheader competition is on tap for the eight participating teams of the Illinois Inter-City Baseball League, all starting Sunday at 1 p.m.

Wendell Corey, manager of the league-leading Mercer Mortuary nine, says, "It's the toughest part of our schedule coming up. Mitchell isn't going to be easy."

Mercer and Ron Madden's Mitchell Athletic Club team will clash for the first time this year, at the Mitchell field.

Other twinbills Sunday include Highland-Pierson versus Thomas Mortuary at Wilson Park, Panama versus East Alton at Brewster Park, and East Alton's VanPelt Park and Music Room Vans versus J&J Liquors on Fletcher Field at Collinsville High School's Greenwood Campus.

Slated to battle it out on the mound are Mercer's Greg Volk and Mitchell's Steve Zambaldi. Ron Zambaldi, also with two wins against no losses.

Earlier this season, Volk hurled a three-hitter enroute to blanking J&J 2-0. Zambaldi, a member of SIUE's junior varsity, yielded only two hits Sunday in blanking the Vans 5-0.

Manager Madden notes that Zambaldi has a zero earned run average.

Six-year Mercer veteran Vic Reznack (3-0 record) and MAC's Tony Stajdhar also are ready for pitching duty Sunday.

Heading Mercer's big bats against the Mitchell club will be Jim Greenwald, who last year helped his team gain the league title by leading the league in runs batted in (37) and homers (eight).

Greenwald has 16 RBIs thus far this season and three homers.

A former minor league player with Minnesota and then Philadelphia, Greenwald is described by the Mitchell mentor as "a threat to any pitcher."

"He has a good batting eye and is hard to strike out," said Madden.

Other Mitchell players have been providing strength at the plate.

Dignated hitter Steve Mueller has a .416 batting average, Ed Kowalczyk .433, Tom Carroll .425, Hector Saubria .355 and Ed Praxma .307.

"Saubria has driven in 15 runs," notes Madden.

Sunday's contests between the two squads loom as a battle for first place. Mercer being undefeated 44-0 and MAC close behind at 5-1.

The Vans are 3-1, Highland-Pierson 3-3, Thomas 2-2, Brewster 1-5, Panama 0-4 and J&J 0-6.

Close Laclede Madison plant

The Laclede Steel Company board of directors decided today to close the firm's Madison plant.

The closing is associated with a decision to leave the fabricated reinforcing bar business, President Paul Akin told the Press-Record after the meeting. Also affected are six smaller plants.

The 150 Madison employees will be given an opportunity to apply for possible transfer to the main steel plant in Alton.

At one time, when the Madison plant produced both steel joists and reinforcing bars, employment here totaled 800.

Laclede Steel directors today empowered the officers to make the Madison facilities available for possible lease or sale to others.

Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk said today that immediate efforts are being made to locate a firm interested in operating the large plant.

May 26 last day for Venice pupils

Venice pupils will attend school Thursday, May 26 for the final day of the 1976-77 school year. Commencement exercises for high school students will take place at 6 p.m. Wednesday, May 25.

Venice schools were closed Jan. 11, due to weather conditions, but a "snow" date was added to the 1976-77 school calendar earlier for emergency closing, Supt. Vickery said.

Bicyclist hurt

Troy Thompson, 10, of 2000 Fourth St., Madison, was injured when the bicycle he was riding was struck by the pickup truck of Arthur Spiroff, Marine, III, at Sixth and McNair Streets in East Madison at 4:20 p.m. Tuesday.

The boy was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where a small puncture wound to the left side of his head was sutured. X-rays were taken and he was admitted for observation.

VENICE BOARD REJECTS REQUEST BY TEACHER

The Venice Board of Education last night denied a request by Richard Essington that he be relieved of coaching duties after this spring.

The teacher had asked in a February letter that he be relieved from coaching assignments effective May 10, the end of the 1977 baseball season.

'Jackpot' slips seized, gambling charge filed

Following an undercover investigation, Granite City police seized the Long Branch Tavern, 2105 Grand Ave., at 11:45 a.m. yesterday and seized $371 worth of "Jackpot" slips allegedly used for gambling.

The owner, Dave M. Martin, 53, of 2156 Edison Ave., was arrested in the tavern and was charged with keeping a gambling establishment.

Officers said a woman called them and said her husband had just lost his entire paycheck on gambling slips in the tavern.

Officers said they used an undercover volunteer giving him $20 in $1 bills after recording the serial number of each bill.

The undercover man was in the tavern about 20 minutes and alleged purchasing $16 worth of the 50-cent slips. He took several unopened slips with him when he left and gave them to officers.

Two police officers and a detective then entered the tavern and asked Martin where the slips were. They said he pointed under the bar and they confiscated $371 worth of unused slips.

Another $375 worth of used slips were found in the wastebasket nearby, officers alleged. Also found nearby was $238 in cash, including 10 one-dollar bills with serial numbers allegedly matching the numbers recorded previously by police from the bills given the undercover man.

Detectives said today the slips, which are rumored to be available in several taverns in the city, are sealed and when opened show three slots containing pictures of lemons, oranges, cherries, bells and other symbols normally found on slot machines.

Printed on the slips is a suggested "payoff" for various combinations of the pictures, it was alleged.

Martin was released on a notice to appear in court June 6. Detectives warned that any establishment caught using the "Jackpot" slips for financial gain will be prosecuted and efforts are under way to determine who is selling the slips to several taverns.

Illinois senators passed 33-21 Tuesday a bill requiring that all primary voters declare a party affiliation 28 days before the election. ## Groundbreaking for Sr. Citizen Village Groundbreaking ceremonies will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday, May 22, at the site for the Eden Village, near Edwardsville, which is to be a Retirement Center and Care Center for senior citizens in this and the Edwardsville area.

Dr. Robert Trombly will be the main speaker and Wesley Bornemann, senior pastor of Eden Church, will preside.

Elmer Pape, president of Eden Retirement Center, Inc., and Merrill Otwein, chairman of Cottonwood Care Center, Inc., have invited the public to attend.

They said building plans have been completed and site preparations have started for the construction of Eden Village. The village will offer more levels of care, services and activities than any other retirement center in this part of the country, Pape said.

Eden Village is designed to give retiring senior citizens the ultimate in leisure, retirement living with four levels of living care, many planned activities and recreational programs, diet service, maid service, private telephone in all apartments, and registered nurses on call.

Several Quad-City residents are serving with the planning committee.

The Village is owned and operated by Eden Retirement Center, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation, sponsored and endorsed by Eden United Church of Christ.

It also was announced that applications for residency are being taken now. For full information Quad-Cityans may call or write to Dr. Robert Trombly, Box 185, Alhambra, Ill. 62001, Phone: (618) 488-7911; or Elmer Pape, Eden Retirement Center, Inc., Box 625, Edwardsville, Ill. 62025.

A special slide program on the new concept of living at Eden Retirement Center will be shown for those interested after the dedication ceremony.

Complete information will be available on how to become a resident of the Village, plus Cottonwood Care Center investment information.

The program is planned to take place in the Church Recreational Building, known as The Well, located one-half mile east of Highway 159 at Cottonwood Junction on old Troy Road.

GC girl, 6, to compete for Miss La Petite title

Nicole Ruth MacLaughlin will compete for the title "Miss La Petite Illinois" June 3 through June 6 at Rockford, Ill.

The 6-year-old miss is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacLaughlin (Sheila Cook), 2218 Cleveland. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cook, 2318 Delmar. She is a first-grade student at Emerson School.

Nicole qualified to compete at the state level by winning first alternate in district competition at Edwardsville in March, 1976.

She will compete with 35 other state contestants who have qualified in the Miss La Petite division.

Miss La Petite contestants are judged on poise and personality in modeling party dress and sportswear, as well as personal, close-up interviews.

Talent is not included in Miss La Petite competition.

Nicole also will compete for the title "Miss Photogenic - La Petite." The judging and selection of Miss Photogenic is conducted simultaneously but completely separate and apart from the Miss La Petite competition.

In addition to the La Petite division, other contestants will be competing for the titles "Little Miss Illinois" and "Ideal Miss Illinois."

The site of the Illinois Miss La Petite, Little Miss and Miss Ideal pageant is the Maddox Theater, part of the $3 million Clarke Art Center of Rockford College, Rockford, Ill.

Nicole is sponsored by the First Granite City National Bank.

'Alarming' growth in teenage drinking

The number of Americans addicted to alcohol will probably double during the next decade, according to a psychiatrist and expert on alcoholism.

Dr. David Ohlms, president of the St. Louis Council on Alcoholism, said incidence of alcoholism among children is growing at an alarming rate and may double the total number of adult alcoholics in the U.S. in about 10 years. He was a featured speaker during Southern Illinois University at Carbondale's first annual Training Program in Alcohol Awareness for Student Personnel Professionals this week.

He estimated that five percent of all high school graduates this year are alcoholics. Ohlms said increasing numbers of young persons are beginning to drink at an early age because of peer group pressure, the availability of "booze," personal problems, pressures associated with school and family, and the influence of advertising.

"Our drinking society has looked at youth and decided it is a great untapped potential market, and right now the market is being tapped," Ohlms said.

"Advertisers and the liquor industry are portraying alcohol as something that will make the user successful, sensual and attractive, and that message has been accepted by kids."

Seek housing bond increase

Robert J. Harmon, a Chicago banker and attorney, today was named to the state's top administrative post in housing — director of the Illinois Housing Development Authority, the public corporation established by the legislature to finance private multi-family housing through sale of revenue bonds.

He and A. D. Van Meter Jr. of Springfield, chairman of IHDA, said in a joint statement that "our most pressing challenge in the coming weeks is to put IHDA back in the business of financing housing."

"The authority has been one of the most successful housing agencies in the nation, but its present $500 million in bonding authority is exhausted. The legislature must act swiftly to extend our bonding authority so that we may again start generating rental housing for the elderly and families of all income levels."

The IHDA has financed 77 developments in all parts of the state, creating 14,990 new or rehabilitated units since its formation in 1967. Of those, 32 per cent are for the elderly, 40 per cent rent to moderate-income families and 28 per cent rent to low-income families.

Because of the depletion of its bonding authority it has been unable to accept new proposals for the past year, State Rep. Calvin Skinner (R, Crystal Lake) is sponsor of a bill to add $300 million in bonds to the authority, which would generate an estimated 12,000 additional rental units, according to Van Meter and Harmon.

He cited a change in alcohol use among youth — the growing consumption of wine — as an example of the dilemma.

"In the past 10 years, the wine industry has been able to capitalize on this youthful market by creating a whole new line of wine — the so-called 'pop wines,'" he said.

"They have youthful names, their tastes barely resemble that of wine and they have achieved enormous success."

"There is nothing wrong with taking a drink occasionally to relieve tension or stress, or drinking socially — as long as it is done with restraint," said Ohlms' partner, psychiatrist Joseph Kendis.

Kendis, who has specialized in treating alcoholics for 34 years, said good drinking habits could be taught in the home.

"These children in homes where the parents drink responsibly are more apt to become responsible drinkers themselves," Kendis asserted. Kendis and Ohlms said they have been treating an increasing number of teenage drinkers, both their private practice and their work with alcoholics at St. Anthony Medical Center.

Both recommended the National Council on Alcoholism and Alcoholics Anonymous as resources where individuals with alcohol problems can get help.

"Before you can treat alcoholism, you must first admit the existence of the disease, and denial is a big obstacle to both the alcoholic and his family," said Ohlms. He estimated that 40 million Americans are affected by the disease — 10 million of them alcoholics and the remainder family, friends and acquaintances.

Jobs for 'first offenders'

Jobs for 40 Madison County youths who have been convicted of a criminal charge and are considered to be first offenders will be available this summer through Operation Turn Around.

The program is geared toward the first offender, between the ages of 14 and 17 years old, who currently is on probation or has been in a detention home or similar facility. The jobs at Lewis and Clark State Park, near Hartford, will pay $2.30 per hour.

Those employed will be divided into two groups of 20 youths each. Each group will work a 20-hour work week in building and maintenance tasks, and constructing a nature trail. Bus transportation will be provided from locales within the community to the work site. Operation Turn Around application forms may be obtained at the Illinois State Employment Services (ISES) office, 1820 Cleveland Blvd. Additional information may be secured from Carl Peher and Don Ahrens, counselors, at 876-5031, or by stopping by Coordinated Youth Services at Niedringhaus and Delmar avenues, where the Turn Around counselors have an office on the upper floor. Similar satellite offices now have been established in Alton, where Steve Wilson and Rick Pugh may be contacted at 1-462-6037, and Edwardsville, at 1-692-4597, the office of counselor Mark Sonoma.

When obtaining an application at the ISES office, applicants should ask for an Operation Turn Around form and print the title of the program or "to the attention of Kim Hammon," project director, on top of the form. Funded through the Manpower Development program, Operation Turn Around not only will provide employment for first offenders, but also will feature special presentations throughout the summer months.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

Thurs., May 19, 1977 Page 19

Mark Sonoma, a counselor and philosophy major at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, said participants will hear career professionals discuss job opportunities in local industrial plants and business firms. A first aid seminar, karate demonstrations and similar activities "also are being arranged," Sonoma said.

Six counselors drawn from SIUE will work along with the young people during the 20 weeks of the program, Hammon said. Those interested in entering Operation Turn Around are being urged to obtain an application immediately as the forms now are being processed. The work program will commence June 15.

Man charged, one freed in firearms incidents

Two Granite City men resorted to guns to protect their property in separate incidents Monday night and early Tuesday, but no one was injured. Police decided to charge one of the men but not the other.

Edwin A. Meyers, 29, of 1751 Chestnut St., was charged with discharging a firearm within the city limits after he allegedly fired a 12-gauge shotgun into the side of his garage at 9:25 p.m. Monday.

Meyers allegedly told officers he thought he saw a youth with a gasoline can and a hose near his car and shot at him to protect his property.

A resident in the 2200 block of Lee Avenue fired a small-caliber gun into the ground outside of his home as a youth was attempting to leave the scene on the man's bicycle.

The man told police the bicycle was connected to fishing line which went into the house and was connected to some pots. The "trap" was set so anyone moving the bicycle would cause the pots to bang together.

Mulches aid garden

By CHRIS DOLL

Area Garden Advisor
Mulches can be a great asset to the garden — helping to control weeds and conserve moisture.

In view of a possible hot, dry growing season, mulches may be the difference between crop success and failure unless irrigation is available. Mulching materials may be organic (compost, sawdust, pine straw, wood chips, corn cobs, grass clippings, straw, peat moss) or manufactured (plastic, paper, foil).

The main advantages of using organic mulches are seen in the summer, while the benefits of plastic mulches occur in early spring.

Organic mulches reduce weed growth, maintain uniform soil moisture conditions, keep the soil cool, and reduce erosion. They also reduce water loss and water requirements, reduce nutrient loss and fertilizer requirements, reduce losses to fruit rots, keep fruit cool, and add organic matter to the soil when turned over at the end of the growing season.

Plastic mulches have many of the same benefits, but are used in early spring to promote soil warming and early harvest.

Organic mulches are summer mulches in that they keep the soil cool and reduce moisture loss and frequency of watering. Apply organic mulches in a layer thick enough to prevent weed seedlings from coming through. Fine materials such as sawdust and peat moss should be applied in a layer one to two inches deep.

Fluffy materials such as straw and hay should be applied in a layer three to four inches deep.

If you use sawdust as a mulch, increase the nitrogen fertilization about 1/2 to 1 manure for the nitrogen used in decomposition of the sawdust.

Grass clippings make a good mulch but should be dried before they are applied to the garden or spread in a very thin layer. Fresh grass clippings when applied in a thick layer will go through a heat that may damage the crop and give off an odor as they decay.

Straw should be clean and free of weed seed when used as a mulch.

Peat moss is expensive, and has a tendency to become water repellent. Peat moss is better when mixed in the garden soil.

Compost is one of the best organic mulches for the garden and can be easily produced by the gardener.

Use mulches on the long season crops where the full benefits of moisture retention and cleanliness can be obtained, or where weed control is needed.

Cycle hits truck
of 2165 Bern Ave., suffered a motorcycle injury when a motorcycle struck the rear of a truck at about 3 miles-per-hour and he fell to the pavement Monday.

He suffered cuts to his chin and head which were sutured, and deep bruises to both arms. He also had small bruises to both knees. X-rays were taken and he was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

THEFT FROM VEHICLE
Items valued at about $430 were stolen from the van of Dale Minner, 2328 Washington Ave., Apt. 3, it was discovered this week. The right rear window was pried open to gain entry. Stolen were an air compressor, a tape player and a case containing 24 tape records.

GC school secretaries to organize own union

By DONNA HARTWICK
Press-Record Staff Writer
A request by 43 of the 52 secretaries in Granite City School District 9 to be recognized in a newly-organized union, separate from the present Building Services Employees Local 96, was presented to the Granite City

Board of Education Tuesday night by Mrs. Linda Miles, chairman of the executive committee of the group. Mrs. Miles reported the secretaries voted to resign from Local 96 and to form an independent association to be known as School District 9 Secretaries Association for the purpose of collective bargaining.

In other board action, the members agreed to reduce two administrative positions from 12-month employment to 10 months, in the employees relations and director of cafeteria departments. They also voted to reduce three 12-month secretarial positions to 10-month jobs and to reduce a custodian position in the South High School gym complex.

With the resignation of Alan Corder as director of the Gifted Program, the board voted to revise the job description and to create an assistant curriculum coordinator to direct the Language Arts Program for all students.

The position will include directing the state-funded program for gifted students, direct the district's public information efforts and perform related duties as required.

Roy McConkey, vocational placement counselor, will be retained in his position for the seven-week summer school session, following board action. Dave Wilson was hired on a full-time basis as a painter for the school district to fill the job opening due to the resignation of one of the three painters employed by the board. Board members agreed to re-employ nine teachers for the 1977-78 school year who will attain tenure. They include Alvin Turner, South Industrial Arts; Janet Burnett, North — home economics; Mary Hamilton, North — science;

Genia Robertson, North — home economics; Patricia Cooper, North — English; Kim Harrison, Frohardt — resource; Ronald Keeton, Marshall — resource; Marilyn Parker, Marshall — remedial reading and Jane Pears, South — social maladjustment. Those re-employed with no tenure for the forthcoming school year were Beverly Postar, South — science; Sue Knobloch, North — home economics; Terry Tessary, North — driver education; Judith Ward, North — orthopedically handicapped; Virginia Wyrostek, North —

English; Carla Ziff, Coolidge — visually impaired; Barbara Blatter, Mitchell — resource; Mark St. Ivany, Lake — trainable mentally handicapped; and Susan Sheeley McKinley — emotionally disturbed. Resignations were accepted with regrets from Don E. Miller, assistant football coach at South, and Harold D. Boren, assistant football coach at North, for the 1977-78 school year as extra-curricular assignments. The board granted a request for leave of absence to Cynthia Mills, Maryville — resource teacher.

Two women, child injured

Two women and a child were injured in a three-vehicle chain-reaction accident in the 2500 block of Ponton Road at 4 p.m. Tuesday.

It was reported the eastbound auto of Billy Dillon, Belleville, was stopped for a train with the auto of Mrs. Carolyn Rushing, Alton, behind it.

The station wagon of Mrs. Beverly Huff, 3825 "B" St.,

Pontoon Beach, allegedly struck the rear of Mrs. Rushing's auto, pushing it into Dillon's car.

Mrs. Huff was charged with failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident. Taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital were Mrs. Rushing and a passenger in her car, Mrs. Roxie Houston, 30, of 4655 Ponton Road, and Mrs. Huff's 3-year-old son, Kelly Huff.

Mrs. Rushing was admitted to the hospital with a possible back strain and with a bump to her head. Mrs. Houston was admitted for observation of injuries to her neck and right shoulder and a bruise to her right lower leg.

The child was x-rayed for a bump to the back of his head and was released.

Mrs. Kimmel will attend; honor Moore

Willis Moore, who has served as a member of the Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees since March 1974, has been honored by the board for his "valuable contribution to SIU and his effective service" as a trustee.

Moore, a retired member of the SIU at Carbondale faculty, has been replaced on the board by Mrs. Carol K. Kimmel of Rock Island. Her appointment by Gov. James Thompson was confirmed by the State Senate April 22 and she is expected to attend her first meeting when the board meets here June 9.

While a trustee, Moore served on the board of governors of the SIU Foundation at Carbondale, the joint trustees committee for Springfield medical education programs, and as the board's delegate to the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges.

In a resolution of appreciation, the board said, "Willis Moore brought to his service as a trustee the same distinction and commitment which characterized his earlier contributions as teacher, scholar, academic administrator and faculty representative on an impressive number of councils and committees over a period of almost 40 years; and as a trustee, he has, in retirement from his academic career, extended his deep and genuine concern for the welfare of the university."

Moore's term on the board expired in January, along with the terms of Harris Rowe of Jacksonville and William R. Norwood of Elk Grove Village. Rowe and Norwood were re-appointed by the governor. All of the appointments are for six-year terms.

Moore was named to the board in 1974 to fill the unexpired term of Dr. Earl Walker of Harrisburg, who resigned for health reasons.

Oriental Band competition

More than 350 Nobles, all a part of the 28th Annual Oriental Band Jamboree, Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, will convene in St. Louis on June 10, 11, and 12. The event is part of the Great Lakes Shrine Associations program, and will be hosted by Ainat Temple of East St. Louis. There are 22 Temples in the Association which covers the mid-west on the east side of the Mississippi River. Avery Schermer of Granite City is president of the Great Lakes Oriental Band Association, and will head the group that will host the three-day event. Schermer said the big day will be Saturday, June 11, when the 10 bands will parade in downtown St. Louis as part of the judging for the competition of the bands. They will stop off at 10:30 a.m. finishing at the Stauffer Hotel. They will then appear at 12:30 p.m. for final competition on the stage at Stauffer's. An awards dinner that night, with Bob Hardy of KMOX as master of ceremonies, will include presentation of the trophies for the best bands in the competition. Ray Rogers of Edwardsville is president of the Ainat Temple Oriental Band which will host the gathering, while Warren Decatur of Granite City will be in charge of the parade. Ben Livingston, Granite City, and Larry Wachtel, Belleville, will be in charge of housing. Bill Oliver of Granite City will handle the refreshments.

Potentate Ralph E. Green, Ainat Temple, will help handle the other Temple Divan Nobles that will be present, and to also assist President Schermer with the banquet presentation. The Ainat Oriental Band was formed in 1967 under Potentate Roy Wilmzig, and has finished in competition over the years with two firsts, two seconds — one place — out of six times attempted. Mocha Temple of London, Ontario, will fly in Friday, June 10, for the three-day show. It is the most northern of the 22 Temples. The contest was held in Cincinnati in 1976, and will be in Flint, Mich., in 1978. Oriental bands consist of Musettes, the only wind instrument, drums, gongs, cymbals, tamborines, and bells. The costume of the band members, the bearded make-up and the curled-toe shoes, add to the importance of each member of the group. In the parade competition, marching appearance, musical tone and ability to play, plus costumes, make up 50 per cent of the score. In the stage competition, showmanship (such as the sword dance), musical ability, type of number played, and coordination of players are scoring points. Jack Stansberry was to be the chairman of the three-day festival, but illness dropped him from the program. Stansberry has assumed command. Nobles William H. Ledbetter, a school band director, will head the list of judges for the Oriental Bands. Other officers of the Great Lakes Shrine Oriental Band Association include Warren Convis of Elkhursh Temple of Flint, Mich.; Hugh W. Whitlock, Mocha Temple, Windsor, Ontario; Harold Butler, Chillicothe, Ill.; Mohammed Temple, Peoria, Ill.; Sgt.-At-Arms Wilfred K. Walther, Murat Temple, Indianapolis, Ind.; Secretary-Treasurer Ralph Heinzerich, Zenobia Temple, Temerence, Mich.

The officers of the Ainat Oriental Band include Ray Rogers, president; Glen Bartling, vice-president; Arthur Smith, secretary; and Carl Rosh, treasurer. Ainat Temple is located in East St. Louis, and is one of 180 Shrines in the world. The Shrine is a fraternal organization, and has 4,400 Nobles and covers from Route 40 South through all of Illinois. Ainat has 38 Shrine Clubs and 37 units.

Madison to install smoke, auto alarms

The Madison City Council Tuesday night approved two new safety programs, the installation of smoke detectors and auto burglar alarms. The installation of both will be free of charge to senior citizens age 60 or older. In proposing the new projects, Mayor Mike Sayk said, "Our burglar alarm program of installation will be finished within 60 days and I want to suggest that we begin installing smoke detectors for fire safety. "Smoke detectors are used in several housing codes and have proved to be life savers. I feel we should first install them in the homes of our residents that are 60 years or older. After we finish that we can install them in private homes for $22 each. These are battery operated, but when the batteries get weak from time, the alarm will sound to let you know to replace them." Alderman Ronald Grzywas said, "I think this is a good program, but I am interested in the financing. Will it be like the burglar alarms?" Sayk replied that the money would come from the alarm fund.

On a motion by Alderman Donald Broyles with a second by Alderman Paul Ashford, the program was approved. "I also have one other thing I want to mention," said. "I would like to see us install auto alarms in any auto owned by senior citizens, and then we can install them for $25 each to others who want one. Like the fire and burglar alarms for the senior citizens, these will remain the property of the city, not the senior citizen." The council also approved this program. Building Inspector John Dutko announced that all the necessary steps have been completed for condemnation of buildings at 1513 Third street and at 415 Madison Ave. He reported he has made numerous attempts to get the owners to comply with the building codes but they have not. City Clerk John Belkoff read a letter from the Bi-State Development Agency announcing a peak hour express bus service from Madison through Granite City to the McDonnell Douglas complex in north St. Louis County. The new line, called the Granite City-Hazelwood Express, will begin in mid-June. According to Robert J. Baer, executive director of Bi-State, the new line is being put into service at the request of Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler. Mayor Sayk asked that the aldermanic finance committee meet with him and the comptroller at 8 p.m. next Tuesday.

Dog seized after 9th attack

Madison County rabies control officials have seized a 150 pound German shepherd dog from the home of a Slough Road man, alleging the dog has attacked at least nine persons since 1975, including an 11-year-old by a 19-year-old Edwardsville girl at 8:50 a.m. Tuesday. Miss Theresa Morris reported she was looking for an address in the Chouteau Slough area when she became lost and went to a home to ask directions. She alleged that as she approached the house, the dog assaulted her, knocked her to the ground and bit her right arm and her back. She drove to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was admitted for surgery with cuts three inches and one inch in length on her right arm and a puncture wound to her back.

Prior to surgery, she reported the incident to the Madison County rabies control office which researched the history of the dog and reported finding reports on file of eight previous attacks in the last two years. A rabies control officer and two Madison County sheriff's deputies went to the home and seized the dog, which is being held while authorities determine what should be done about the case.

Hennessey attorney for Pontoon Beach

Robert P. Hennessey, who has law offices at 2945 Madison Ave., was hired by the Pontoon Beach Village Board during a recessed meeting Tuesday night as the new village attorney.

Hennessey replaces Paul Guzzardo of the Calvo and Guzzardo law firm, as attorney for the village board. Guzzardo resigned, citing an increasing workload in his private practice.

Also during the recessed meeting, Village Board President Floyd David Moss encouraged the finance committee to begin preparing the village budget for posting next month.

Some of the items the trustees would like to see included in the budget were discussed, but no official actions were taken.

The finance committee, newly appointed by Moss, is chaired by Trustee Raymond Gaudette Jr. and includes Trustees Duane Skinner and Paul Bennett.

Other committees, with the chairman named first are: Police — Donald C. Rea, Skinner, Keith Biggs; Ordinance — Biggs, Loren Madison, Gaudette, Roads Bennett; Madison, Biggs.

Health — Madison, Bennett, Rea, and Parks and recreation — Skinner, Rea, Gaudette. They will serve for one year.

Named to serve two years on the village liquor commission were Bennett, Madison, Rea and Biggs.

In other business, the board authorized its consulting engineer, Ed Juneau of the Sheppard, Morgan and Schwaab engineering and consulting firm of Granite City, to seek state or federal grants to finance a survey of the condition of the sanitary sewer lines in the Quiet Valley Subdivision.

It was noted a survey to prove that the two miles of underground lines are water tight and will not accept seepage from the ground is necessary before the sewers can be tapped into the proposed sanitary sewers for Namecki and Chouteau Townships and a portion of Venice Township.

A suit now in Appellate Court at Mount Vernon is keeping the sewers from being constructed, but attorneys for both sides had filed their briefs with the court as of this week and a date for a hearing on the issue is anticipated in the near future.

In other business, the board requested Juneau to complete a plat study of the Jones Park area, necessary before the village can accept ownership of the road through the park.

Loan of a village pickup truck to Namecki Township for the mosquito spraying program was approved under an agreement the township will spray for mosquitoes in the village. The township also is to provide insurance on the truck.

Council may control supervisor's office

A move to require the Granite City Council — acting as the Town Board — to apply to the office of township supervisor the same procedures it may apply to the township assessor's office in controlling hiring, firing and financial operations of that office, was initiated Tuesday night in a meeting of the council while convened as the Town Board.

Warren Decatur, alderman of Ward Four and an associate of the political group that opposed the re-election of Mayor Paul Schuler and Township Supervisor Nelson Hagauer in the April 5 elections, moved that the board "follow the same procedure" with the supervisor's office as proposed for control of the assessor's office at an April 19 meeting of the Town Board.

The action referred to by Decatur involved an attorney general's opinion presented to council members April 19 by City Attorney George Filcoff who noted that the opinion specifically places upon the council (as the Town Board) the responsibility of approving the hiring and firing of employees in the assessor's office, as well as approving the budget and financial activities of the assessor.

The action referred to by Decatur involved an attorney general's opinion presented to council members April 19 by City Attorney George Filcoff who noted that the opinion specifically places upon the council (as the Town Board) the responsibility of approving the hiring and firing of employees in the assessor's office, as well as approving the budget and financial activities of the assessor.

The action was a departure from past policies of the council. In previous years the assessor was permitted to hire and fire his employees at will, to determine salaries of his employees and prepare his own budget. That same policy has been applied to the supervisor's office.

Von Doe Cruse, township assessor, charged the action was political retaliation because of his support of candidates who were favored by the Schuler-Hagauer organization. He remarked at the time that "if they want to run my office, let them come on down."

Immediately following Decatur's motion in Tuesday night's meeting, Emerald Daves, alderman of Ward Seven, asked Filcoff if the regulations governing the assessor's office in regard to Town Board control also applied to the supervisor's office. Filcoff replied that the information he gave the council April 19 was based on an opinion by Attorney General William J. Scott, and that he could not say that it also applies to the supervisor. "I don't know that it applies in the same way," Filcoff said.

Alderman Sam Whitmer objected to efforts to control either the assessor's office or that of the supervisor.

"These men are elected to office. The people selected them. Their operations should be their own responsibility and they should answer to the people for what they do. I say let them alone. Let them run their own offices."

Whitmer's comments brought a round of applause from the council members.

Paul Ray Bowler, newly-elected alderman of Ward Seven, asked Filcoff if it is possible for the city to obtain an attorney general's opinion concerning Town Board control of the supervisor's office, and Filcoff said that it is.

Bowler said, "I am in favor of resolving this matter in accordance with the law." Bowler then moved to amend Decatur's motion providing that Decatur's proposal for the same policies in the supervisor's office be effective if an attorney general's opinion holds the same regulations are applicable to the supervisor.

In a vote on Bowler's amendment, "no" votes were cast by Aldermen Whitmer, Roy Poulos, Earl Baker and Glen Sprankle.

"Yes" votes were cast by Aldermen Decatur, Everett Morien, Charles Douglas, Fred Schuman Jr., Emerald Daves, Lloyd Bailey, Mrs. Margaret Nann, Bowler and Mayor Schuler. Unlike his voting status as mayor on the City Council, Schuler votes on all town board matters.

The 8 to 4 vote, with Aldermen Gerald Parrinley and Clyde Boyd absent, was sufficient to carry Bowler's amendment.

Identically the same vote was cast on Decatur's motion to apply assessor office policies to the supervisor's office. The effect of the action is that the City Council would be required to control the supervisor's office in the same manner as the assessor's office if an attorney general's opinion holds the same regulations are applicable to the supervisor's office.

"Survivors" include her husband, Louis Gowan, and her son, Ralph Gowan of St. Louis. Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

5th All-City Band Festival Saturday

About 300 youthful musicians will participate in the fifth All-City Band Festival, sponsored by the Granite City School District, at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in Memorial Gymnasium at South High School.

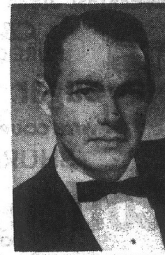

Harold L. Hillier, director of bands at Eastern Illinois University at Charleston, will serve as guest conductor for the 1977 festival.

Bands to perform in the concert include a combined high school band, with students from both North and South high schools; a junior high band, consisting of Coolidge, Prather and Grigsby band pupils; and an elementary school band made up of children from the Nameoki and Lake Division bands.

Hillier, who also will work with the band members during the day Saturday, specializes in cornet and trumpet. He joined the EIU faculty in 1972 as an assistant professor of music. At Eastern, he is director of the Symphonic Wind Ensemble, the Marching Blue of EIU and supervises all other band activities. Hillier was director of bands at the University of Texas at El Paso for 10 years before coming to Eastern.

He is a graduate of Wichita State University and the University of Southern California. He taught high school music in the states of Colorado, Missouri and New Jersey.

The public is invited to attend the All-City Band Festival.

Poppy Days in GC Friday, Saturday

"Poppy Days," the annual sale of poppies by Tri-City American Legion Auxiliary 113, will take place Friday and Saturday in Granite City.

Mrs. Mildred Rees, chairman of "Poppy Days" for the past 15 years, said volunteers from the auxiliary will seek donations from passersby at several locations.

"We will be offering the poppies to the public all day on both Friday and Saturday in Downtown Granite City and at the suburban shopping centers," Mrs. Rees said.

She is being assisted in the project by Don Morris of Legion Post 113.

Disabled veterans make the poppies and receive a portion of the donations. The remaining funds are allocated to other charitable projects supported by the veterans' organization, Mrs. Rees explained.

Charged as 'doorknob twisting' GC burglar

Robert Gilbert, 23, of 2225 Grand Ave., was charged Monday with burglary and was taken to the city jail after the arrest of another man charging two counts of burglary.

Granite City detectives alleged information gained from Gilbert and from the other man being sought had led them clearing seven burglary cases and an attempted burglary and have offered clues in four other burglary cases.

All of the occurrences are described by police as "doorknob twisting burglaries," where vice-grips or pliers were used to twist off doorknobs to gain entry.

Officers say current doorknob burglaries are not related to another series several months ago which ended in the arrest of a man and woman in Chicago.

Police said they had been unable to identify persons involved in a series of doorknob twisting burglaries in recent months.

Then a witness described an attempt to break into the apartment building of Thomas Skubish, 3845 Village Lane, April 18 just before it was discovered that Skubish's apartment had been burglarized.

Based on the description of the car, detectives asked police to search for Gilbert. On April 26, Gilbert's auto was stopped and officers alleged finding hypodermic syringes and needles, two wristwatches and a wallet in the auto.

Investigators alleged the watch Gilbert was wearing was stolen in a "doorknob burglary" at the home of Mike Reagan, 2555 Edison Ave., and the other watch in the car was taken during a similar burglary at the home of Wayne Williams, 4216 Namek Road.

The wallet belonged to the other man being sought, an associate of Gilbert, officers alleged.

Gilbert was charged in late April with unlawful possession of a hypodermic syringe and with possessing a stolen watch and was released on bond after questioning.

His associate was questioned and fingerprinted last week and was released during the weekend without charges being filed due to a lack of evidence, officers said.

A detective compared the man's fingerprints with one found on a jewelry box from the home of Sam Silek, 2551 Potomac Road, which also was burglarized April 18, and said the prints appeared to match.

The fingerprint from the jewelry box and the man's fingerprints were sent to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for comparison and word was received at noon Monday that the FBI had certified that the fingerprints matched.

Associate Judge A. A. Mateosian then issued warrants for the associate's arrest.

Officers have been unable to locate him.

Other burglaries cleared through the same investigation but unrelated to this week's charges were at the homes of Dwight Smith, 1850 Brennen Ave., Larry Gubser, 1708 Lindell Blvd., and Steve Jones, 3344 Carson Ave., detectives contended.

An attempted burglary at the home of Elmer Hutchins, 3233 Carson Ave., also is being considered a cleared case due to information developed during the investigation.

Several items of allegedly stolen property have been recovered during the investigation, including the two watches allegedly found in Gilbert's auto, three rifles and shotguns surrendered by a man who allegedly was a "third-hand," and a milk stool recovered by a St. Louis police tactical unit.

The investigation in St. Louis led to the apartment of a third man, who allegedly deals in heroin and stolen merchandise.

Two Granite City detectives joined St. Louis officers in questioning the man at his home Tuesday, and reported they were unable to see anything resembling loot from local burglaries.

The man has not been arrested.

Gilbert's bond was set at $15,000 and he was taken to the Marion County Jail at Edwardsville.

Nemeth new police captain

Lt. Joseph Nemeth, a Granite City policeman since May 1, 1965, was promoted by the Granite City Council Tuesday night to the rank of Captain and immediately was named to head the patrol division, the largest of the police department's three divisions.

Nemeth succeeded Capt. Everett Kelly who retired on disability from the patrol division captain's post.

The appointment of a director was held up by a delay in the appointment of two St. Clair County members of the district board. Those appointments were completed only last month, followed immediately by Wheldon's appointment.

Wheldon is an engineer and an attorney.

Wheldon said his first interest was the leasing of three Ford LTDs and approval of expense accounts which were running $400 per month for the trustees. They were cut a month ago to $200 per month on the advice of the district's auditing firm, which said the $400 appeared excessive.

The new director said that under the law he has the authority to administer the district and that the trustees would have to get rid of it if they did not agree with his decisions.

The commissioners in a short time Monday afternoon approved bids of Bo Beuckman Ford of $9,900 on a new car and $5,400 on a new pickup truck.

Wheldon said the cars will be assigned to the motor pool and not to an individual.

The new car was among the three Ford LTDs that had been leased.

degree in law enforcement from Belleville Area College and a master of arts degree in humanities from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Both Woods and Chensault are married and have children.

Knezevich joins the police department May 30 after leaving Amax Zinc Co., East St. Louis, where he is a pressman.

He served in the U.S. Marine Corps from Sept. 1971 to Sept. 1975 and became a corrections officer with the military police.

A lifelong resident of Granite City, Knezevich attended Granite City schools and graduated in 1971 from Granite City High School.

While in the military, he attended corrections school, leadership school and disturbances control school.

Oliver Meyers, 57, of 2136a Grand Ave., a retired employee of Nestle Co., died at 12:01 a.m. Wednesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

He was employed as a fork lift operator 30 years at the local plant prior to his retirement in 1975.

Mr. Meyers was born in Mill Creek, Ill., and resided in this area 50 years. He had been ill two years and hospitalized two months.

His wife, Mrs. Anna Della Meyers, died in 1959.

Survivors include four sons, Edwin, Frances and Dewayne Meyers of Granite City, and Robert J. Lindsay, serving in the U.S. Navy, Chicago with the U.S. Navy; two daughters, Mrs. Linda Ponder and Mrs. Dianne Wallace, both of Granite City; one sister, Mrs. Rosetta Scarborough of Granite City and two grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Council audience waits, eventually gets action

By HARRY BARNES

Press-Record Staff Writer

Action taken by the Granite City Council on April 26 to change the office of superintendent of streets from an elective to a appointive one, was legally valid under state statutes and city ordinances, City Attorney George Filcoff told a disturbed-capacity audience after Tuesday night's regular council session.

The audience was disturbed because it had waited through more than two hours of council procedure for a discussion of Filcoff's opinion — and nothing happened.

And for a few minutes it appeared the spectators might miss out on the action entirely.

The council meeting came to a rapid close as business was completed about 10:10 p.m., and Alderman Emerald Daves moved for adjournment. As council members prepared for their chairs, someone in the audience called for them to wait.

Alderman Roy Poulos asked some of the aldermen, then on their way out, to stay a few minutes.

A member of the audience explained that the group was there to hear the city's attorney's opinion on the legality of the council's April 26 action changing the status of the street superintendent's office from elective to appointive.

That opinion — in writing — had been requested in the May 3 council meeting by newly-elected Alderman Fred Schuman Jr. of the Fourth Ward who was one of a group that opposed the re-election of Mayor Paul Schuler in the April 5 city election.

That opinion — in writing — had been requested in the May 3 council meeting by newly-elected Alderman Fred Schuman Jr. of the Fourth Ward who was one of a group that opposed the re-election of Mayor Paul Schuler in the April 5 city election.

Filcoff said he had the opinion. "Then let us hear it," someone called from the audience.

Filcoff handed a sheet of paper to Schuman and asked if he would read it. Most of the aldermen stood by their seats or near the doors, ready to leave.

The opinion said: "On April 26, 1977, there were 13 of the 14 elected aldermen present for the City Council meeting.

"Proposed Ordinance No. 5402 was read.

"A motion was made and seconded to suspend the rules of order, which includes any order of business as outlined in various ordinances of the city of Granite City and the motion was approved by a vote of 11 of the aldermen, which vote was sufficient to suspend such rules as required by Article II, of Chapter 2, Section 2-206 of the Municipal Code of the city of Granite City.

"Thereafter, 11 aldermen voted in favor of such ordinance, meeting the number necessary to qualify for the two-thirds required to change the position of Superintendent of Streets from an elective to an appointive position.

"Paragraph 5-7.1, of Chapter 24, Illinois Revised Statutes, provides for the appointment of a city superintendent of streets by the mayor, with the approval of the City Council, based upon an ordinance passed by two-thirds vote of all the aldermen.

"Since this procedure was followed by the City Council with the required number of votes the ordinance (5402) is valid as passed."

Filcoff's reference to the motion to suspend the order of business "which includes any order of business as outlined in various ordinances" obviously was in answer to a charge made in the May 3 council session that the ordinance "changing the street superintendent's status was illegal because the type of business prescribed by an earlier ordinance for the fourth meeting of the month was limited in scope.

The motion to suspend the order of business was made in the April 26 council meeting by Alderman Clyde Boyd of the Third Ward before action was taken on the motion to make future street superintendents subject to appointment after the present term of Street Superintendent Lionel Portell expires May 1, 1979.

As Schuman finished reading the opinion, a woman in the audience called out: "We'll take care of that."

Another shouted, "We're not doing it."

As the aldermen began leaving, still another spectator shouted: "We don't like being ignored, either."

Apparently the council had no indication as to why the large audience was present, apparently assuming it was there in support of Portell.

Customarily, a person who wishes to speak from the audience during a council session makes a request of the alderman of his ward who introduces a motion to permit the person to speak. No such motions were made during the meeting and none of the aldermen had called upon Filcoff to present his opinion at the meeting.

PLAYDAY PLANS are discussed by the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce Playday Committee, which announced that reservations still are available for the golf and dinner program. From left, around the table, Frank Rea, Dave Knollman, Herman Schroeder, Ivan Pomeroy and Barry Loman.

GC council rejects move for advance copies of ordinances

A 9 to 3 majority of Granite City Council members rejected Tuesday night, a proposal by Alderman Charles R. Douglas of the First Ward that copies of the ordinances prepared for enactment by the council be provided to the aldermen three days before the council meeting in which they are scheduled for passage.

One alderman described such a privilege as "impossible" and Mayor Paul Schuler remarked that "I can see where that would give us some trouble."

Alderman Roy Poulos, chairman of the Ordinance Committee, explained to Douglas that in many instances final preparation of ordinances is made on the same day, or the same afternoon or evening, of the council meeting in which they are to be enacted.

Alderman Warren Decatur of the Fourth Ward reminded Douglas that this same motion when I came on the council two years ago, but got nowhere. I'm for this session.

Douglas' motion followed council action on a resolution authorizing Mayor Schuler to sign and to have published an official statement necessary to the city's issuance of bonds to aid the financing of the $18 million St. Elizabeth Hospital expansion program.

That resolution specified that publication of the statement is necessary before the next meeting of the council, when it could be given full council approval, and that the mayor therefore should be authorized to prepare and publish the statement.

The council on March 1 this year enacted a bond enabling ordinance under which it may issue bonds to provide funds for the hospital. The bonds are to be retired by the hospital at no cost to the city.

Douglas noted that it was such ordinances as the hospital resolution in which were heard by the aldermen for the first time when they are presented for passage.

"We are not acquainted with the facts in these ordinances we have not seen and we can't vote intelligently on them," Douglas said.

Douglas made his motion that all aldermen receive ordinance copies three days in advance of meeting dates as soon as the resolution concerning the hospital bonds was approved on a suspension of rules and a final passage vote. The aldermen voted unanimously in favor of that action.

After several aldermen predicted problems in meeting such a requirement, Mayor Schuler remarked the proposal could be given further study before action was taken.

"I can't see where there is any problem," Douglas said. "It's only a matter of making copies of the ordinances and putting them in our mail boxes downstairs."

"We are not acquainted with the facts in these ordinances we have not seen and we can't vote intelligently on them," Douglas said.

Douglas made his motion that all aldermen receive ordinance copies three days in advance of meeting dates as soon as the resolution concerning the hospital bonds was approved on a suspension of rules and a final passage vote. The aldermen voted unanimously in favor of that action.

Man charged after arrest in Madison

Harvey Lee Rory, 19, of 8721 Botanical Ave., Caseyville, is being held in lieu of $4,000 bond on state and local charges filed against him following incidents during the weekend in Madison.

Rory was charged with criminal trespass of state land and three city violations of battery, destruction of property and disorderly conduct.

The incidents started when the police were called to Madison Junior High School to investigate a man inside the building wielding an iron bar and threatening a student in a classroom, according to police reports.

Upon being removed from the premises, the man allegedly struck a stairway banister with the bar, causing damage. Later at the Madison police station, the man allegedly attempted to break a window and force was used to move him into a jail cell, police said.

Alderman was placed in the cell, he allegedly kicked open the door before it could be locked and then ran down the stairs in his right knee and right foot, said another officer on his elbow.

Patrolman William Steiner, who sustained the elbow injury when taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated and released. The other officer declined treatment.

Bicyclist struck

Andrew Patrick, 8, of 2135 Lee Ave., was injured when his bicycle was struck by the auto of Glen Davis, 2250 Lee Ave., at 7:50 p.m. Monday.

Davis said the bicycle turned suddenly from the sidewalk in front of a parked car and then into the street and Davis was unable to avoid striking it.

The boy was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was examined and was admitted for observation.

To review board actions

Wendell Wheldon of East St. Louis assumed his duties early this week as executive director of the Metro-East Sanitary District, and announced his first steps will be to review actions taken by trustees of the district who have operated since December without a director.

The Metro-East Sanitary District was established in December to replace the former East Side Levee and Sanitary District under Illinois legislation passed last year.

Wheldon said his first interest was the leasing of three Ford LTDs and approval of expense accounts which were running $400 per month for the trustees. They were cut a month ago to $200 per month on the advice of the district's auditing firm, which said the $400 appeared excessive.

The new director said that under the law he has the authority to administer the district and that the trustees would have to get rid of it if they did not agree with his decisions.

The commissioners in a short time Monday afternoon approved bids of Bo Beuckman Ford of $9,900 on a new car and $5,400 on a new pickup truck.

Wheldon said the cars will be assigned to the motor pool and not to an individual.

The new car was among the three Ford LTDs that had been leased.

Third Baptist plans third Music Festival

Third Baptist Church, 2901 Grand Ave., will host its third annual Music Festival at 6:30 p.m. Sunday. Special awards and recognition will be given for attendance during the choir year and all choirs and ensembles will perform in the event.

Nearly 50 voices will combine from the New Creation (youth) and Church Choirs to present Jerry Kirk's "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears" plus "And This Is Love" by the blind composer, Ken Medina. The four and five year old choir will sing three selections, "I Like to Sing of Jesus" by Reynolds, "God Made You" by Grantham and "God's Beautiful World" by Truss.

Both handbell choirs, The Joyful Sound and The Jubilee Ringers, will also be participating in the festival. They will sing "Brethren, We Have Met to Worship" by Jesse Newcomer and Donald Allured's arrangement of "The Ash Grove."

Ronn Huff's setting of Bill Gaither's "The Church Triumphant" will be performed by the contemporary group, The Windo's, starring soloist Steve Johnson and narrator Jon Hill.

The Young Musicians, the fourth through sixth grade choir, will offer Eugene Butler's musical story "Samuel" and "Arise, Shine" taken from Isaiah. The latter composition will feature a unique trumpet and handbell accompaniment.

Another highlight of the evening is going to be the young ladies ensemble, Charity, singing John Coates up tempo arrangement of the old favorite "Sunshine in My Soul."

To climax the festival, the Music Makers, first through third graders, will present the musical drama "The Wish of the Beggar" by Veleria and Derrell Billingsley.

The pastor, the Rev. Roy Johnson, and member of music, John Nading, extend an invitation to the community to attend this Festival of Music.

Webster PTA installs

During the May meeting of the Webster School PTA, the officers for 1977-78 were installed. They were Guy Cooper, president; Mrs. Yvonne Gray, vice president; Mrs. Barbara Haddock, treasurer; and Mrs. Gail Cooper, secretary. The new officers were installed by Mrs. Barbara Haddock, president of the Area Council PTA.

Members of the sixth grade class attending the meeting were presented with certificates of appreciation from the PTA by the Webster School Principal James Jeffries. Jeffries, in his remarks to the graduating class, said that they had "taken the first step in a series of educational steps. Learn from the experiences that you have had. Strive to improve yourself so that when you reach the end of the next step, the imprint that you leave behind will be even more favorable."

Members of the PTA approved the purchase of a public address-intercom system for the school. The system when installed will allow two-way communications between the administrative office and the class rooms and other work areas of the school. Also discussed was the Washington Theater trip for all students and faculty, later this month.

Mrs. Yvonne Gray, retiring president of the PTA, presented red and white carnations to PTA members who assisted her during her year as president. Her husband, Donald, presented her with a past president's pin.

The meeting was closed by the newly installed president, and in his closing remarks said "there will be changes next year. Not changes for the sake of change but improvements in the meetings and projects."

The meeting was adjourned with refreshments in the school cafeteria.

Teachers hear Suzuki Strings

The Beta Eta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met during the weekend at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville with 54 members in attendance.

The main program of the meeting was presented by Mrs. Beverly De La Bretonne and 22 violinists ranging in age from five to 17 years. Mrs. Bretonne commented briefly on the Suzuki method of teaching the violin. Dr. Suzuki developed the method through the belief that everyone can learn to speak a language and, thus, can learn to play music in the same way. It is called the "mother tongue" method of playing music. Dr. Suzuki's idea was to make teachers parents, not produce concert violinists.

Mrs. Virginia Oram, president, presided at the executive board meeting. A special cookbook project, with members contributing their favorite recipes, has succeeded so well that the profits will cover the entire four-year goal of the Golden Gift Fund, representing 50 years of the organization. It will also provide about two-thirds of the per capita assessment of members to provide working capital for the Illinois State organization's preliminary work for hosting of the 1978 International Convention of the group in Chicago, according to Mrs. Oram.

A scrapbook covering her biennium of office was presented to past president, Mrs. Marilyn Weidner of Edwardsville. The research committee, personal growth and services committee, and professional affairs committee have been jointly engaged this year in a study, along with chapters all over Illinois, of teacher morale. One of the attitudes that the group finds evolving is the belief that junior and senior high school students do not have a feeling of responsibility any more, the president added.

Members voted on new members before adjourning until next September. Local teaching attendance was Mrs. Gladys Pape, Mrs. Viola Edwards, Miss Nelle Hart, Mrs. Barbara Williams, Mrs. Georgia Engle, Mrs. Nancy Barnett, Mrs. Vivian Dine, Mrs. Jean Hall, Mrs. Valerie Stevens, Miss Cleo Ann, Mrs. Irene Cook, Miss Ann Harn, Mrs. Nancy Rainer, Mrs. Marguerite Connole, Mrs. Sandra McMoulin, and Mrs. Esther Vastilef.

THEFT FROM AUTO

A 589 citizens' band radio, a 592 tape player and an assortment of tape recordings were stolen from the auto of Dan Penrod, 2133 E. 24th St., it was discovered early this week. A coat hanger believed used to unlock a car door was found near the auto.

New candidates for SIUE post

The vice-president for business affairs search committee at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has identified two additional candidates to be brought to the campus for interviews, according to Robert Schultheis, professor of business management and chairperson of the committee.

The committee announced earlier that three candidates were scheduled for on-campus visits, beginning May 8. At that time, Schultheis said there was a possibility that additional candidates would be invited. The two new candidates and the dates they are scheduled to visit are:

Ria C. Frijters, dean of social sciences, humanistic studies and managerial sciences and professor of business administration at Towson State University, Baltimore, Md., May 17-19; and Rudolph E. Kolicic, vice-president for business and finance, St. John Fisher College, Rochester, N.Y., May 23-25.

The three candidates for vice-president announced originally and the dates of their scheduled visits are: Douglas R. Picht, executive dean, San Jose State University, San Jose, Calif., May 8-10; Lawrence R. Larson, vice-president and treasurer, Mills College, Oakland, Calif., May 11-13; and Arnold G. Franke, lecturer, department of management, SIUE School of Business and former assistant vice-president for business affairs at SIUE, May 15-17.

Meanwhile, on-campus visits also are continuing this week by candidates for the position of vice-president and provost at SIUE. Five candidates were invited to the campus by the search committee which is headed by Jerry Hollenhorst, professor of economics, and visits are scheduled through May 24.

The candidates for both positions are meeting with various constituency groups, including faculty, staff and students in open meetings. Final recommendations are expected to be delivered by the search committees to President Kenneth A. Shaw by June 1.

President Shaw has said he hopes the appointments can be finalized by July 1. Both appointments must be confirmed by the Board of Trustees.

Nelson, Coe, Murphey to star in SIUE concert

Willie Nelson, David Allan Coe and Michael Murphey will all be featured during a special concert Sunday, sponsored by Student Government at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The concert will begin at 4 p.m. at the Outdoor

SIUE concert set Friday

The Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will present a concert Friday at 8:15 p.m. in the Communications Building theater. The evening of music also will include brass ensembles from Collinsville, Edwardsville and O'Fallon.

Carl St. Clair, director of bands at the University, will conduct the concert.

The program will open with "Southwestern Sketches" by Samuel Adler and continue with Gordon Jacob's "Music for a Festival." Pieces will include "Intrada," "Overture," "Round of Seven Parts," "Air," "Interlude," "Saraband," and "Finale."

Neal Strebel will be guest conductor for Bannum's arrangement of Russell Alexander's "Colossus of Columbia." Richard Rogers will conduct Malcolm Arnold's "Duke of Cambridge."

Also on the program will be Morton Gould's "Jericho Rhapsody" and John Philip Sousa's "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

Students featured in the concert include Tom Bull, Carol Lynne Douglas, Stephen Hall, Jeri Johnson, Cindy Johnson and Karen Schneider of Granite City, and Victor A. Barnhart and Deborah Barham of Madison.

Performing Arts Facility (the Mississippi River Festival site), on campus.

Willie Nelson, hailed as "King of Progressive Country Music," was named to the Hall of Fame by the Nashville Songwriters Association in 1973. He won three Country Music Association Awards last year for Country Duo of the Year, Album of the Year ("Wanted: The Outlaws") and Song of the Year ("Good Hearted Woman").

In 1976, after being nominated five separate times, he received a Grammy Award for "Blue Eyes Cryin' in the Rain," as the Country Single of the Year.

After nearly 20 years of turning out hit songs, Nelson's cult-like following in the Southwest has burgeoned into national superstardom. In the meantime, critics from coast-to-coast have "discovered" Willie Nelson.

Robert Hilburn of the Los Angeles Times picked Nelson's "Phases and Stages" as Best Country Album of 1974. New York Times music critic Lorraine Altman wrote that Nelson was making "country music that can move even those of us who think we despise it."

Critic Ed Ward, writing for Country Music Magazine, called Nelson's "Red Headed Stranger" album a "masterpiece."

Coe has been called "Nashville's number one outlaw." Rather than conform to the song factory style of writing and dress, this ex-convict turned poet and entertainer, has had the determination to hold out for the things in which he believes.

Coe's songs have been recorded by Johnny Cash, George Jones, Tammy Wynette, Tanya Tucker, Leon Russell, Del Reeves and many other pop and country singers.

His biggest song to date is entitled, "Would You Lay With Me (In a Field of Stone)" which was recorded by Tanya Tucker and became number one on all major country charts. Murphey's name is probably most closely connected with his Top 10 hit single, "Wildfire." Murphey's songs have been recorded by John Denver ("Boy From the Country"), Hoyt Axton ("Geronimo's Cadillac"), The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band ("Cosmic Cowboy"), Cher, Bobbie Gentry, Flatt and Scruggs, Roger Miller, The Monkees and The First Edition.

Murphey began reaching star status in his own right in the summer of 1975 with a single from his fourth album, "Blue Sky - Night Thunder," called "Wildfire." It was number two on the national charts for 21 weeks. He followed this success with another hit single, "Carolina in the Pines."

Tickets for the May 22 performances are $5 for lawn seating and $6, $7 and $8 for tent seats. For tickets or further information on the concerts Quad-Cityans may contact the University Ticket Office at 692-2320.

WILLIE NELSON, hailed as the "King of Progressive Country Music" will star with David Allen Coe and Michael Murphey in a special concert Sunday at 4 p.m. at the Mississippi River Festival site at SIUE at Edwardsville. The event is sponsored by the Student Government.

Administration decides to make the Alton dam a hostage

Hostages are associated in the public's mind with terrorism. It is a bit of a surprise to see the Carter administration go out of its way to capture the badly-needed Alton Locks and Dam replacement project as a hostage in the deliberations over whether to establish waterway user fees. It smacks a bit of taking advantage of a situation to force cooperation that otherwise might not be forthcoming.

Democratic legislative leaders in Washington have been told that the President intends to veto any Congressional authorization of new Alton facilities unless the measure includes fee payments by barge lines on a national basis to offset river and locks maintenance and construction costs.

It will be recalled that the Senate Public Works Committee endorsed simultaneous approval of user fees and Alton lock-dam replacement, but the Senate Commerce Committee objected to the former and authorized the latter. Among other points, the commerce panel noted that revenue legislation must originate in the House of Representatives.

Supposedly, senators are about 60-40 against imposing inland waterway charges at this time, but presumably the Senate may be persuaded to vote for the fees, against its better judgment.

The two issues are different and therefore ought to be considered separately.

While we believe the new facilities are needed, the hypothetical opposite view comes to mind: If a new dam is unnecessary, should it be approved merely because the administration wants user fees and an opportunity to throw its weight around to get them?

Highway pact may enhance images of Thompson, Bilandic

With the Interstate 55 route between this metropolitan area and Chicago still unfinished after what seems a lifetime of waiting, and many other projects moving slowly, it is tempting to applaud the May 12 Chicago-Downstate agreement because it will bring a new infusion of highway construction money.

The main caution is to avoid excessive reliance on borrowing, weighing the likely interest costs against the probable impact of future inflation on the cost of carrying out delayed road projects.

Available federal highway matching funds again served as the "carrot on the stick" to attract state financing.

Where former Governor Dan Walker and the late Chicago Mayor Richard Daley could not agree over a four-year span, Acting Mayor Michael J. Bilandic and Governor James Thompson have devised almost an instantaneous settlement.

The long-sought Chicago Downstate Expressway will receive the governor's signature if it is passed by the General Assembly, and Chicago area legislators will support major projects in suburban and Downstate regions.

Opinions differ over whether the pact will speed or slow up the task of completing the Interstate 270 circle from the local area south and west to connect with the I-270 terminus in Missouri.

With the acting mayor seeking to make the title permanent and with the governor facing an artificially brief (two-year) period in which to develop a record of accomplishment, both may gain politically from the agreement. Much of the financing will be by the federal government, which some Illinoisans think of as "free" but others know is paid for by, you guessed it, us taxpayers.

'Rest in peace' for Social Security's insurance concept

Press-Record Washington Bureau — Years of Congressional tinkering with Social Security pretty well drove it into the ground as an "insurance" or "pension" system. The administration plan to start phasing it up with general tax revenues would plant a headstone over the grave.

Social Security checks no doubt will continue to await Americans in their retirement or as a benefit for disability, but the principle that we earn them as contributors to an insurance plan is now fully exposed as an illusion.

This is not the only epochal change which Health, Education and Welfare Secretary Joseph Califano Jr. outlined on behalf of President Carter.

While heretofore employees and their employers have shared the Social Security payroll tax equally, it would now become a burden falling more heavily on employers.

Under the plan, workers would pay the 6.05 per cent Social Security tax on earnings up to $19,500 by 1979.

That ceiling would continue to stand on what the worker pays, but there would be no ceiling on the employer's contribution.

The 6.05 per cent tax would be applied across the board to all wages and salaries. The result would be an additional $30 billion in the tax on American business and industry over the next five years.

Mr. Califano says "there's plenty of money on the corporate side" to bear this new burden. This may be news not only to corporate treasurers but to members of Congress who are in the process of enacting tax incentives to business to encourage them to hire new employees.

What's the point of that kind of "stimulus" for business firms when the government will be making it more expensive to hang on to the employees they already have?

Further, personal and corporate income taxes are going to be burdened with the $14.1 billion in revenue which the administration may have to take from the general fund over the next five years to keep Social Security from running out of money.

We are now getting a glimpse of what it is going to cost to keep feeding the Social Security system that began with such modest ambitions 40 years ago.

The cheers are reserved for those moments when the eligibility for Social Security is broadened or the promise of future benefits is sweetened. There have been many of those occasions over the years.

What the administration is proposing is a whopping tax increase. We can't say much for the equities of the plan, clinging as we do to the hope that Social Security might survive as something other than a government dole.

But if Mr. Carter accomplishes nothing else he will have jarred Congress into confronting the piper waiting to be paid.

Should public pay child support costs?

Editor's Note: Public welfare costs and programs in recent months have been the center of several controversies. This is the second of two articles dealing with just one problem of the mounting welfare problems in Illinois.

By JOAN MURARO

SPRINGFIELD — If John walks out on Mary and the kids, and Mary knows where John is, why shouldn't John have to pay to support Mary and the kids?

That, feels Sen. Don Moore, R-Midlothian, is a good question.

He's looking for a good answer.

The state has an excellent "absent father" bill, which lets the state Department of Public Aid — with some help from Uncle Sam — find the missing males and haul them into court to force them to assume the obligations they left behind.

But Moore says only seven per cent of the state's missing fathers are being found and paying up.

Dale Johnson, bureau chief for resources and support in the Department of Public Aid, which handles the child support cases, says he believes part of the problem has been federal regulations which in the long run will be beneficial but which for the last two years have taken up a disproportionate amount of department time.

Under a complex arrangement, Illinois gets back from the federal government 75 per cent of what it spends in administrative costs for child support cases. In Illinois' case, that's now 75 per cent of $3 million yearly, according to a survey of records by Copley News Service.

In return, the state then turns over to federal authorities half of what it collects — for Illinois, half of $14 million a year, currently.

One aspect of federal regulations, Johnson says, is that all child support cases must be on a court order basis — even if Daddy is willing to pay without the threat of a court order must be there.

Federal regulations also require the state to make payments to the department, not to the wife directly. Converting all existing cases to meet these requirements has taken a big part of the department's time while only shifting money from the state's pocket to the federal government, producing no "new" money, Johnson says.

Once the required shift in caseload is complete, and it nearly is, he believes the department will be able to show that results are finding the fathers who got away.

"I firmly believe a father should support his family," he says.

The department will be aided in the search by a new computer system scheduled to go on line in June. It will offer faster, more sophisticated services and minimize pencil-pushing, Johnson told Copley News Service.

When the state goes after a missing father it starts with the mother. If she doesn't know where he is, she provides information about his job history, his own family's whereabouts, his Social Security number and auto license number if she knows it. The Public Aid Department then can contact parents, former employers and other sources, and try to track him down.

If all efforts fail, they routinely move to the federal labor service, which can bring to bear searches of Social Security records, armed forces data, and the myriad other fingers the federal government keeps on the public palce.

There is a growing nationwide trend which has Johnson worried — a belief that Social Security numbers should not be used on driver's licenses on the grounds of "confidentiality." If that catches on, finding absent parents will grow much more difficult.

Just because Absentee Al skips out of Illinois, he doesn't necessarily home free. Most states and the U.S. territories have signed a reciprocity agreement which lets them handle cases for each other with a minimum of cost.

Just for Cook County alone, in March of this year, for instance, the department got money from, sent money to, or did both, with every state but Alaska.

Support money even was obtained for someone in California.

Both Johnson and Moore agree that the potential for far more support by fathers is there. He cites the example of Michigan, which collects $70 million a year in support payments.

But if Amanda A., and John and Mary all represent public cases, what about William W. Withjob — the mother who also has been abandoned but doesn't qualify for public aid?

She also can get the department to help track down her Wandering Willie. Federal rules say the department should charge for the service, but the cost is minimal.

If Wanda wants to find Willie, without further action it will cost her $20, Johnson says.

If she wants him found, and legal action started, the cost is based on a sliding scale depending on the size of her family and its gross income.

Thus, a family with two persons and a gross income of $400 or less would get along without public aid with a gross monthly income of $400 would pay only $5. A family of two with a gross income of $800 would get a bill for $180 for the search-and-aid service.

That program, says Johnson, has grown very fast and since it started on Aug. 1, 1975, only about 1,500 to 2,000 applications have been received.

He feels this is not because of a little confusion, but rather that public aid families already are entitled to help, and families able to get along without public aid are more likely to go to a private agency to trace their missing mates.

Taxes to finance state campaigns?

By BOB ESTILL

SPRINGFIELD — Should a portion of state income taxes be used to defray costs of statewide general election campaigns?

State Comptroller Michael Bakalis, the Illinois Common Cause citizens' lobby and Sen. Arthur Berman, D-Chicago, and Jack Schaffer, R-Cary, are among those who say yes.

They feel letting the taxpayers voluntarily pay part of the cost of one-way of financing the influence of big contributors and insuring that persons of limited means can seek state office.

Schaffer, with an assist from Common Cause, has introduced legislation allowing candidates for governor to use tax funds to help pay for advertising and brochures.

Berman, at Bakalis' request, has introduced legislation providing similar matching funds for campaign expenses for candidates for all six statewide offices — governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, secretary of state, treasurer and comptroller.

In both cases, the size of the public bill would be determined by the taxpayer. Each Illinois taxpayer could check off on his state income tax form whether or not he wants to earmark $1 of his state taxes for campaign purposes, the same option the taxpayer now has in regard to financing presidential campaigns with federal income taxes.

It would be a voluntary measure on how big the public fund would be.

Schaffer and David Ellsworth, state chairman of Common Cause, estimate the fund could grow to $2 million over a four-year term of office, with the taxpayer paying an average of about $400,000 annually in non-election years and $800,000 in election years.

Sen. Ellsworth Bakalis also estimates the fund could total $2 million in a single year.

There are problems with both bills, and Schaffer and Ellsworth concede their respective proposals will be subject to considerable revision.

The complicated procedure in the German bill for apportioning funds among major and minor party candidates are likely to be revised, Ellsworth said.

Schaffer says there also are questions about his measure, "because the state is not qualifying and the lack of any ceiling on the amount of tax funds a candidate can draw. At over $1 million a year and a myriad of others — are answered, prospects for passage at this session are dim."

Schaffer said he doesn't intend the bill to be in effect for the 1978 election. If his bill is passed, he said its future will depend to a large part upon what actions are taken by Gov. James R. Thompson and Bakalis.

Ellsworth said he views the effort this year as "primarily educational." There is a "big merger" of the public campaign financing concept.

He said he doesn't see the point of considering a merger with Schaffer.

And, while Thompson isn't a voter, and a common cause member, he isn't embracing it either.

Physician assistant standards vary

To the Editor:

In 1975, the Physician's Assistants Practice Act (P.A. 79-940, Ill. Rev. Stat., Chap. 91, Sections 221-229) was signed into law.

At that time, supporters argued that physician's assistants (PAs), who would be employed by and work one-on-one with the physician, could perform many routine tasks which would free the physician to perform more complex procedures, thus bringing medical care to a larger segment of the population.

Now, a short time later, an amendment is being proposed in Senate Bill 433 which would allow hospitals to hire PAs directly.

But standards for PA training and education should be uniform, not as PA functions well-defined, which raise serious questions about the law.

Who will supervise physician's assistants employed by hospitals? How will they relate to the health care system and what will be their relationship to health professionals like registered nurses who by law take orders only from licensed physicians or dentists?

One of the most important questions is, how will PAs working in hospitals improve patient care? And what is the hospital's purpose in hiring them?

We believe that consumers should raise these questions with their senators.

Adding a new level of health worker to the present system will only further fragment care and confuse the patient, who is already traumatized by being in a hospital.

The answer is not the proliferation of new health workers but the utilization, to the fullest extent possible, of these highly skilled professionals who are already in the system.

Mitchell firemen courteous, efficient

To the Editor:

I am writing this letter in response to the courteous and efficient service recently received from the Mitchell Volunteer Fire Department.

At approximately 1:15 a.m. Thursday, May 12, we began smelling smoke. Upon closer inspection outside we found smoke hanging in the air around our house and what appeared to be smoke coming off our roof.

Although we could not detect the source of the smoke we became quite concerned as to what to do considering the circumstances.

We were hesitant about calling the fire department to the lateness of the hour, certain that all the members of the department had retired for the evening. After deciding it would be better to be safe than sorry we made the call, and we certainly were impressed with the response.

The Mitchell firemen went off within seconds of the call and the fire truck and at least eight cars arrived at our home in approximately fifteen minutes.

Three to five minutes later, the firemen immediately went about trying to locate the source of the smoke, checking all around the house and in the attic. After a thorough inspection a smoldering wood fire was discovered in an adjoining lot.

Mr. Dallas was not only terribly relieved, but also embarrassed and upset about the impositions we had placed on the volunteers for a false alarm.

We expressed our apologies and were assured by several members that we had done the correct thing. They also stated that they would make the effort to check a situation of this nature to find a home in flames.

The fire gentlemen are not only an asset to our community, they are a much-needed and greatly appreciated part of the community.

We would like to express a "special thanks" to Lyle Hartzel, Bob Osborne and all the other wonderful people who came out that night to assist.

It makes us proud to know that we have a fire department of such high quality to protect our homes and property.

Differences in political motivations

To the Editor:

Now that Bill Dallas has publicly justified his vote that the city of St. Louis should not be merged with St. Louis County, the superintendent's job to an appointive position from an elective one, I — as a Granite City resident — would like to comment on his letter to the editor explaining his vote on the ordinance's first reading in conjunction with other "lame duck" aldermen.

He explains, "I am my own man and was not influenced on how to vote." Voters are not blind to such high-sounding rhetoric when it is not supported by action.

Mr. Dallas states that the reason for his vote was more personal than political. If elected officials always voted according to personal convictions, then I would never have sought a seat on the common seat.

Our country is a free and strong country because Americans voted according to what they believed was right and not because of some personal animosity.

Mr. Dallas stated that he believed Mr. Portell was the best man for the job, but I say he admittedly relied on the usual promise of support as his criteria for that determination. Thus, we can only conclude from his letter, that Bill Dallas' vote to make the present superintendent an appointive instead of elective office was retaliation because supposedly Mr. Portell did not return his support.

(The Dallas letter alleged Supt. Portell ignored certain pleas relayed by certain aldermen to harm those aldermen's re-election chances.)

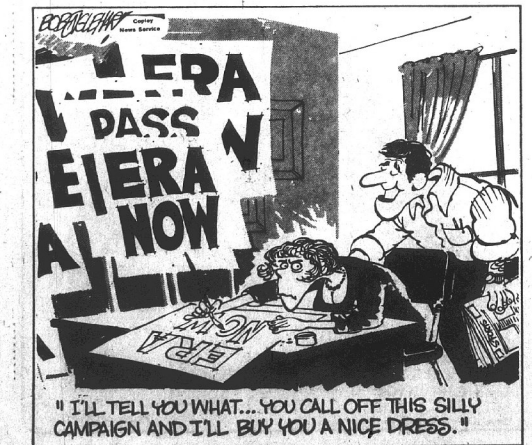

Mr. Dallas then states that he sympathizes with the residents on Pershing Avenue. As a Pershing Avenue resident, I can safely say we don't need his sympathy now. We never received his sympathy before. In fact, we rarely saw his face. All politicians, like all people, at one time or another ask for and give political favors. This does not mean that they are necessarily wrong. Everyone does a favor for someone one time or another.

The difference between types of politicians is when political favoritism is blatant, ill-conceived, and denies the people credible representation.

I charge that on April 26, 1977, Bill Dallas' son and daughter-in-law were appointed to city jobs.

University women prepare educational financial guide

A 36-page guide to educational financial aid, ranging from undergraduate to postdoctoral levels, is available from the American Association of University Women (AAUW), according to Mrs. Viola K. Daugherty, academic adviser at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and corporate representative of the AAUW.

Titled "Educational Financial Aids: A Guide to Selected Fellowship, Scholarships and Internships in Higher Education," it sells for $1.

While most of the sources listed offer aid for both women and men, the association made a special effort to seek out programs that were most responsive to women, Mrs. Daugherty said.

"The AAUW has become increasingly concerned that greater amounts of financial aid in higher education have been awarded to men than to women," says Dr. Helen B. Wolfe, AAUW general director, in the foreword. "Most women are unaware of the financial resources available to them and thus few apply for such aid," she adds.

The guide divides aid sources into four categories — undergraduate, graduate, postdoctoral, and internship-traineeship programs. Purpose of the grant program, requirements, stipend and application procedures are outlined for each listing.

Claudia Stup and Cathy Valsdorf, AAUW interns from Hood College, compiled the information for the guide under the direction of Dr. Suzanne Howard, AAUW assistant director of Program Education, and the staff of AAUW Educational Foundation Programs Office.

The guide may be ordered from the AAUW Sales Office, 2401 Virginia Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20037. Quantity rates are available on request, it was noted.

The administration and faculty of the Venice Grade School for the first time instituted an honor roll system for the six weeks grading periods of elementary students during the school year now ending.

During the first six weeks of the school year, 66 pupils made the honor roll, school officials reported.

The number has since increased from the original 14 per cent of the students to 46 per cent, or 173 pupils, making the honor roll. Officials said this indicates an added incentive to the students.

Water company loses sediment suit to EPA

The East St. Louis and Interurban Water Co. must build a $3 million centrifuge system to separate water from sediment, while the city of St. Louis is permitted to continue discharging more than 10 times the volume of effluent into the Mississippi River.

An increase in water rates for customers eventually will be felt, Glen Thornberg, water company president said, although the company initially makes the expenditures.

The water company had appealed the Environmental Protection Agency's ruling to the Illinois Pollution Control Board, which found unanimously for the EPA.

Because the pollution control board's decision was unanimous, the company has decided not to appeal it, Thornberg said.

The centrifuge system, to be installed at the company's Front Street plant in East St. Louis, will separate water from sediment, with the sediment being discharged into a holding tank for drying. The material then will be dumped as land fill onto company property along the riverfront, Thornberg said.

"The sad part of the thing is what we are returning to the water is just what we took out of it, he noted. Missouri environmental law allows a similar effluent to be discharged into the river in much larger volume, he said. Thornberg said scientists hired by his firm took tests of the river water downstream for the water plant and found no evidence that the water had been in any way adversely affected by the discharge from the water company plant.

The company has been pumping water from the Mississippi River and filtering out sediment before distributing the treated water to customers for many years, Thornberg said.

RABIES CLINICS

A series of rabies inoculation clinics in this area will continue with a clinic today at the Nameoki Township Garage and tomorrow at the Granite City Animal Shelter. Both clinics will be conducted from 3 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. and a $5 fee will be charged. Granite City residents also must pay a city tax of $1 for male dogs and $2 for females. The final clinic will be Thursday, May 26, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. in the Chouteau Township Garage.

Fireblight damages pear, apple trees

By CHRIS DOLL
Garden Adviser

Do your apple and pear trees appear to have been hit with a blow torch? Or do they have dead clusters of flowers or fruits or terminal die-back of shoots? If so, they have been infected with a bacterial disease called fireblight.

Infection of fireblight usually begins when the trees are in bloom. Then succeeding infections occur in young, tender shoots during the nearly growing season.

If you look closely at infected branches, you may see a bacterial ooze or sticky mass where bacteria have multiplied within the twig. This is the source of bacteria for spreading the disease whenever weather conditions are favorable.

Sanitation is very important in controlling this disease. Infected branches should be cut or broken out about 12 inches below the last infection point, and burned. Some trees that are severely infected and that have the disease each year might best be destroyed.

Frequently, the host plant can be a tree a few hundred feet away from your own planting.

Look for this source of trouble. The only spray that is suggested for fireblight is streptomycin and it's now too late to prevent the initial infection. The proper time for spraying against early blight is during bloom. The material could be used now at weekly intervals for twig blight, but it requires diligent spraying over a long period of time to be effective.

Strawberries are ripening and the harvest season is here in one of the earliest springs ever. Growers with Earldown and Blakemore varieties should have the first ripe berries, although Sunrise, Surecrop, Red Chief, Hartman, and many others are right behind.

Home-grown, vine-ripened berries always taste good, but there are differences between varieties. It's the time of the year to evaluate this, either in your own planting or at the pick-your-own farms.

University of Illinois Extension specialists rate Earldown, Pocahontas, Red Chief, and Tennessee Beauty as excellent freezing varieties. Blakemore, Sunrise, Surecrop, and Sparkle rate only good when frozen, and the Armore and Robinson are generally low in quality for processing. However, Armore, Fairfax, Red Chief and Swanhee have superior flavor for fresh use. Remember the variety name when picking for future purchases, either plants or fruits.

Cutworms are a serious pest to sweet corn, beans, and vegetable transplants when they cut off the young plant. Gardens should be inspected regularly this time of the year for this damage.

The cutworm is seldom seen working. It either hides or feeds underground during the day, and may move above ground at night. In feeding, it severs small plant stems or chews holes in large plant stems, usually killing the plant.

The worm can usually be found near a freshly cut plant. To find it, examine the soil for about three inches on each side of the plant to a depth of three inches. They will be light gray to black, about the color of the soil, 1/4 to 1 1/2 inches long and usually in a curled position.

Any worms found in this hunt can be killed with two blocks of wood or reasonable facsimile. But, since they are sometimes difficult to find, and since they can migrate for short distances, escapes will move back into the vegetable row.

Cutworm damage can be prevented by: (1) making a pre-plant soil treatment with diazinon; (2) a post-plant spray treatment with carbaryl (sevin) to the base of the plant; (3) wrap the stems of transplant with paper or foil; (4) set a tin can over the plant; or (5) set a wood or metal rod alongside the stem.

Bi-State initiates new GC line to McDonnell Douglas

27th Street at State and Benton streets; at Benton Street and Fehling Road, and on Johnson Road at Wabash Avenue, Clark Avenue and Pontoon Road.

The buses then will travel non-stop on Maryville Road, Route 203, Interstate 270, North Hanley Road and Airport Road to Gate 101 at McDonnell-Douglas.

It then will go through the plant property past the World Headquarters and out gate 102, right on Brown Road and terminate at gate 27.

The first bus is scheduled to arrive at gate 27 at 6:45 a.m.

The second bus will leave Second Street and Madison Avenue about 6:50 a.m. and will use the same route and stops, terminating the run about 7:45 a.m.

Return buses will leave gate 27 at 3:38 p.m. and 4:38 p.m. and will use the same stops used in the morning trips.

Bus fare each direction will be 60 cents, or 30 cents plus either a weekly pass or an express transfer. The cost in addition to a local transfer will be 35 cents.

A Bi-State spokesman noted, "The new routes help continue the Bi-State policy of providing service to one of the largest employers in the St. Louis metropolitan area."

The buses will be marked: Granite City-Hazelwood Express."

Dunbar works on program

"Lyrics of the Heartside," the poems, prose and songs of Paul Laurence Dunbar, will be presented at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Meridian Ballroom. Actor Joseph Mydell will star in the production sponsored by the Black Student Association (BSA) at SIUE.

Mydell says he has conducted "careful research to bring together Dunbar's works, including letters that reveal the human, angry and proud soul of the great black writer."

Paul Laurence Dunbar was born in 1872 in Dayton, Ohio. He became the foremost black writer of the 19th century. His writings included four volumes of poems, four novels and various prose works and lyrics to many popular songs.

William Dean Howells, who assisted in publishing Dunbar's first book of poems, said, "Dunbar was the only man of pure African blood and of American civilization to feel the Negro life aesthetically and express it lyrically."

Mydell is a graduate of New York University's School of Arts. He has appeared on off-Broadway and toured with the National Humanities Series. On television, Mydell has appeared in many episodes of "The Doctors" and has appeared in the films "Serpico"

Romans 8:31 "... If God be for us, who shall be against us?" Being an underdog may be great for children cartoons but it's certainly not amusing in the adult world. Coming in second in our jobs, marriages, and financial status, can be very discouraging. I have known more than a few people who finally gave up in despair.

Accepting Christ as our Saviour, committing our lives to God, seeking the Kingdom of Heaven and its righteousness first, however, puts God on our side, and with God ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE!

He knows what we have need of, how best to supply that need, and if God be for us, WHO can be against us?

Let God be for you, Today.
